GOVERNOR OF SONORA CHARGED WITH TREASON.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NOGALES (Ariz.) June 2.—Gov. Jose Maria Maytorena of Sonora today refused pointblank to call an election of the State Congress, and stated through close friends that blood will run in Hermosillo's streets before he is forced out of office by military despotism. He made this his answer to a petition presented yesterday by Sonora citizens who sought to intervene in the struggle between civil and military authorities for supremacy.

By way of retort Cpl. Elias Calles, Military Governor of Sonora, and the supporter of Gen. Alvaro Obregon, today caused formal charges to be filed against Gov. Maytorena. These alleged official misconduct of the State's affairs and specified that Maytorena had violated the Constitution by failing to call an election of the State Congress for the passage of essential legislation.

Col. Calles at Hermosillo telegraphed today stating that order has been restored in the capital. Rioting was reported in progress for several days. A disquieting feature is the onrush of Yaqui Indians reported to have been enlisted by Maytorena for the defense of his position. The Indians were today reported rapidly advancing through the Yaqui Valley on their way to Hermosillo. The towns of Croz, Lencho, Torin, Potam and Bacum, in the heart of the Yaqui Valley, are now occupied by the hostiles. Mexican and foreign ranchers between Cocorit and Pitahaya have abandoned their holdings.

FALL OF MAZATLAN IS IMMINENT REPORTS REAR ADMIRAL HOWARD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ON BOARD U. S. S. CALIFORNIA (Mazatlan, Mex.) May 30.—(Mail Correspondence.) (Via San Francisco, June 3.) That Mazatlan will fall is a foregone conclusion in the opinion of the townspeople, its capture appearing to depend entirely upon the whim of Gen. Obregon, commanding the Constitutionalist forces. There are 2400 Federal troops bottled up in the city and unable to do any effective work. Gen. Obregon thus was permitted to send the main body of his army toward Guadalajara for the purpose of cutting railroad communication between the west coast and Mexico City. The object of this move was to prevent arms and ammunition loaded at Mazatlan from reaching Huerta's forces.

The American naval force on the west coast, under the command of Admiral Howard, have been carrying out a policy of strict neutrality, their primary object being to assist Americans and force them to leave Mexico. Many, however, have preferred to remain, relying on Gen. Obregon's promise to safeguard the lives and property of all foreigners.

With the fall of Mazatlan imminent, there is some speculation as to just how safe non-combatants will be in the neutral zone which Admiral Howard succeeded in having established.

The temper of the natives is such that their actions cannot be forecast.

Seven hundred feather-bedecked Yaqui and Mayo Indians are concentrated on Piedras Island, which commands the harbor of Mazatlan and which is within 2000 yards of the city. These Indians grouped into a so-called regiment, are commanded by Col. Manzanera, a Mexican from the wilds of Chihuahua.

Munizquez apparently is not in sympathy with the waiting policy of his chief, Gen. Obregon. "If the general," he said to the Associated Press correspondent yesterday, "would only give the word, I could take the city without any assistance. His heart is too warm." He said he had three sixty-millimeter guns on the beach.

Emplacements have been constructed for the artillery on the island commanding the harbor entrance. Out in the open on the beach stands the field piece that was used effectively in the attack upon the stranded Federal cruiser Morelos, which was later dynamited by two German officers in the Constitutionalist army, assisted by the Mexican, Evaristo Jaramillo.

Collision.

CONDITION OF COLLIER CONFIRMS CAPTAIN'S STORY

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MONTREAL, June 2.—The collier Empress, which rammed the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Ireland in the St. Lawrence River last Friday, causing the loss of more than 1000 lives, completed unloading her cargo of coal today, and it was possible to make a thorough inspection of her bow, shattered by the shock of the collision.

The ship was twisted so much to starboard that it almost formed a hook. Some of the lowermost plating in her bow was also twisted and torn away. There is a large indentation on either side of the stem and the rivets are torn clear.

The condition of the Empress of Ireland carried 1387 persons. It was upon that figure that the list of survivors and missing was based. Tonight, however, the company asserted that the Empress carried 1476 passengers, officers and crew, or an addition of eighty-nine. As a partial offset, the figures giving the number of rescued were raised by thirty-six—four from the first cabin, three from second cabin, and twenty-nine officers and crew. A discrepancy of two in these figures was not explained by the company tonight. The total saved from the disaster is now placed at 452. These include thirty-six first cabin, forty-seven second cabin, 128 steerage and 235 officers and crew.

Of the 1024 who died the bodies of only a few over 200 had been recovered tonight, and only 163 of these are identified.

CONDITIONS MADE BY HUERTA PROMPTLY SPURNED BY REBELS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, June 2.—"Nothing doing" tersely sums up comment here on the statement given out by Emilio Rabasa at Niagara Falls tonight as to Huerta's attitude on his retirement.

Constitutionalist representatives said there was nothing new in the proposals, that nine months ago Huerta made a similar proposal and received no encouragement either from the revolutionists or the United States.

"Such a proposal will not even be considered by Gen. Carranza," said one of the Constitutionalist representatives.

"Huerta knows better than any one just how and when he is going to withdraw from the City of Mexico, we know he will do so in one of two ways, all that are open to him."

"One of them is to accept the terms of the United States proposed to him by the mediators, resign and turn affairs over to a provisional government selected by the mediators, or hang on a while longer and be forced by the Constitutionalist armies to take flight."

President Wilson could not be reached and Secretary Bryan refused to discuss the statement. Other officials of the administration said they regarded the statement as merely a "feeler." In their opinion Huerta is preparing to abdicate, but before doing so wants to put on record that he tried to induce the United States and the mediators to accept his proposals. The statement tonight was regarded as being the first of several proposals he is expected to make before quitting.

Official Washington is more concerned tonight about what the mediators are going to do with the request of the Carranzistas that representatives of the Constitutionlists be allowed to participate in the mediation proceedings.

No reply has been received to the Constitutionalist note sent to the envoys, Senor Zubaran. Juan A. Urquidí, secretary of the local junta, who carried the letter to the mediators, returned to Washington today. He could not say how the letter was received by the mediators.

Secretary Bryan again declined to discuss the alleged pressure the administration is bringing to bear on the mediators to receive the Constitutionalist representatives. From other sources it was learned that unless the mediators do agree to do this the United States will seriously consider withdrawing from the conferences.

Such a message, it was said, was sent to the American delegates today by Secretary Bryan at the direction of the President. The question was taken up by the Cabinet, but no announcements were officially made.

It became known that the President and the Cabinet have not and will not consider the proposal made by Huerta yesterday that a general election be held on July 5. Officials of the administration said later that the Washington government would not give consideration to any proposals made by Huerta which did not include provisions for his immediate retirement.

The White House and State Department refused to discuss the report that President Wilson is contemplating recognition of the rebels as belligerents. The agents of the Constitutionlists believe the report to be untrue.

It is felt that such action would place in jeopardy millions of dollars' worth of claims Americans have against the government of Mexico.

The revolutionary representatives here assert that they and their leaders prefer the whole situation to remain as it is, insisting that Carranza and Villa will be able to accomplish the overthrow of Huerta and the restoration of peace and order.

NEW GOLD STRIKE REPORTED IN ALASKA.

[BY PACIFIC CABLE.]

VALDEZ (Alaska) June 2.—Frendergast, Spenard and Atkins, three prospectors who arrived at Tonsina today en route to Valdez from the Nelchina gold fields, report that rich pay dirt has been struck on Crooked Creek, Willow Creek, Poorman Creek and Noon Gulch. The pay dirt is deep, holes having been sunk 150 feet, but the prospectors report rich returns. Miners working on Willow Creek have found gold on five tributary creeks and are sluicing on eight claims. Provisions in the district are scarce.

SEEK CALIFORNIA SHIPS.

Rebels Plan to Keep Federal Cooped in Guaymas Until Their Retreat is Out Off.

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) June 2.—Until ships are secured to cut off Federal retreat by water from Guaymas, Constitutionlists will do nothing more than keep the Federal garrison in that town bottled up, according to messages received here today from the south. Negotiations for vessels are now being carried on with California builders, "Constitutionalist leaders state."

HUERTA ABOUT TO RESIGN, DON'T ATTACK, MESSAGE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

TORREON (Mex.) June 2.—Gen. Luis Barron, Federal commander at Zacatecas, has sent a second appeal to Gen. Panfilo Natera, begging him not to attack that city because he had received advices from the War Department at Mexico City that Huerta was about to resign. Natera answered that he would not attack, but that he would prevent the retreat of the Federals by cutting the railroad to Aguascalientes. Constitutionalist leaders assert to have information from Mexico City that Gen. Blanquet, War Minister, and the

REPORT THAT HUERTA WILL QUIT, VERIFIED BY PEACE MEDIATORS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NIAGARA FALLS (N. Y.) June 2.—Gen. Huerta is preparing to resign. He today authorized his representatives at the mediation conference to announce to the world that "neither mistaken pride nor personal interest" would prevent his withdrawal after Mexico is "politically pacified," and the government succeeding his is so constituted that it can count on the support of public opinion in Mexico.

The Mexican delegates in a formal statement revealed that they had been instructed from the first to inform the mediators that Gen. Huerta's personality would not be an obstacle toward reaching a peaceful settlement. They also stated in unequivocal terms that the internal situation in Mexico was "necessarily bound up with the international questions," and that this spirit had actuated them in coming to the mediation conference. Coincident with the announcement by the Mexican delegates of their position, the mediators tonight sent a note to Rafael Zubaran, representative of Gen. Carranza in Washington, replying to the communication brought here last Friday by Juan F. Urquidí. The mediators in effect asked Gen. Carranza, through Mr. Zubaran, if the Constitutionlists were willing to discuss internal as well as international questions, now considered inseparable not only by the mediators, but by the American and Huerta delegates as well, and if they were ready to declare an armistice with the Huerta forces so that the "political pacification" to which the Huerta delegates referred in their statement might be speedily brought about.

These acts—the issuance of the statement by the Mexicans and the mailing of a reply to Zubaran—broke the deadlock in the negotiations, the existence of which was formally denied during the day by the mediators. It was nevertheless authoritatively established that not until the mediators withdrew their original intention of ignoring the Zubaran note, did the American delegates consent to go ahead with a discussion of the general peace plan, on which substantial progress was made in today's conferences.

The statement by the Mexicans, prepared two days ago, but not issued until Gen. Huerta had telegraphed his complete approval today of the tentative plan for a new provisional government, also carried the negotiations a long step forward and an atmosphere of optimism prevailed in the mediation colony tonight.

TEXT OF STATEMENT.
The text of the statement follows: "In accordance with instructions which the Mexican delegation have had since the beginning of the peace negotiations, its members declared at the first full conference that it is in the presence of the mediating plenipotentiaries and of the delegates of the United States of America; that

Just before the foregoing was issued the Mexican delegates had a long conference with the mediators. Afterwards they telegraphed Gen. Huerta to send them the names of the men who will be satisfactory to him for places in the new provisional government, to consist of two men chosen by Huerta, two by the Constitutionlists, and a neutral provisional President, selected by common agreement of all parties.

The first four are to compose the Cabinet, but are to be morally obligated by the terms of any agreement reached here to share equally the responsibility of a fair administration which will be expected not only to conduct a general election, but to make a beginning on land, educational and other internal reforms.

FARMERS RISE EN MASSE AGAINST EIGHT-HOUR BILL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DAVIS, June 2.—The formation of the Farmers' Protective League followed the numerous papers and addresses against the proposed universal eight-hour labor bill that marked the second day of the forty-fourth annual convention of the California Fruit Growers' Association today.

Despite the sentiment in favor of the law among the working classes, feeling was strong against the proposed measure here today.

The Legislative Committee of the Fruit Growers' Association voted unanimously in favor of the consolidation of all divisions of the State government having to do with agriculture under one head, probably to be called the secretary of agriculture. Judge Peter J. Shields of Sacramento presented a rough draught of a bill to be introduced at the next Legislature, providing for the consolidation of the horticultural, forestry, veterinarian, dairy and viticulture departments and the State Agricultural Society. The members of the committee present were C. C. Teague of Ventura, Judge Peter J. Shields of Sacramento, G. Harold Powell of Los Angeles, Dr. A. J. Cook, State Horticultural Commissioner, Marshall de Motte of Corning, W. H. Johnson of San Dimas, Dean Thomas F. Hunt of the College of Agriculture, W. H. Weber of Redlands and Senator E. J. Stowbridge of Alameda.

USING WILSON TO GET ARMS.

Mexican Rebels Make Monkeys of Democrats.

Washington Plays Into the Hands of Carranza.

"No Americans Need Apply," Sign in Tampico.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, June 2.—Notwithstanding developments of the most important character with reference to the Mexican situation, no government official could be found today who would discuss the latest news of Gen. Carranza, the rebel leader, in which he has virtually thrown down the gauntlet to the mediators between Gen. Huerta and the United States. Not only have the officials of the administration effectively closed the mouths of their subordinates on Mexico in all departments of the government, but the official family, from the President down, has organized the "consensus of silence" ever hatched in Washington.

Nevertheless the mediation proceedings at Niagara Falls are believed in high official circles to have struck a snag in the attitude of the Constitutionalist, which threatens the success of these negotiations. Hopes are entertained that a solution of the difficulty may be found, but it is noteworthy that administration officials have ceased temporarily to report "progress" toward a peaceful settlement of Mexican affairs.

The key to the Mexican situation as it has developed at the Niagara Falls conference and in Mexico itself lies in the fact that the Constitutionalist know, as they always have known, that no government can endure in Mexico which is put on the job by the United States.

This statement was made here by a man who is thoroughly familiar with internal conditions in Mexico. "Now that the time is rapidly approaching for a settlement of the Huerta provisional government, either through mediation or by force of arms the Constitutionalist are unmaking their real position," continued the informant. "They never have in good faith subscribed to an alliance with the United States which would place them in control of Mexico."

They know such a course was fatal to their ultimate success. They have used the United States to get arms and supplies for their army until now they have a port of refuge, and are no longer dependent upon this source of supply. As the crisis approaches, they are ready to throw down the gauntlet, as Carranza has done in his public statement of yesterday. No one familiar with Mexico had a right to expect anything else.

"NO AMERICANS NEED APPLY."

(BY MEXICAN CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, June 2.—The wholesale discharge of American employees of British oil and mining concerns throughout the troubled sections of Mexico is a feature of the war scare brought to light by scores of refugees arriving in Vera Cruz. According to their stories, the management of the companies is unwilling to run the risk of trouble because of Americans leaving at a critical moment.

Two big concerns that let out Americans, say the informants, are the El Oro Mining and Railway Company, 100 miles from the capital, and one of the biggest mining corporations in the country, and the Iguala Oil Company, operating in Tampico, Tuxtepec and Mexico City.

"In the future there will be no more American employees," the managers of the latter is said to have remarked. At the plant of the former concern the American manager is said to be superintending the discharge of his countrymen.

SHIPPING ARMS TO THE REBELS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Amputation for the Constitutionalist of Mexico left New York with munitions of war, created considerable stir in Washington. The vessel was cleared at Niagara Falls, the attitude of the Constitutionalist serving as the stumbling block in the negotiations.

Information that the steamer Antilla, which recently was fired upon by Constitutionalist outside Tampico, had left New York with munitions of war, created considerable stir in Washington. Information that the steamer Antilla, which recently was fired upon by Constitutionalist outside Tampico, had left New York with munitions of war, created considerable stir in Washington. The vessel was cleared at Niagara Falls, the attitude of the Constitutionalist serving as the stumbling block in the negotiations.

What may happen by the time the Antilla, sailing under the Cuban flag, reaches the Constitutionalist-controlled port at Tampico, is a matter of some interest in official quarters tonight. Up to the present Tampico has been regarded as an open port.

The United States, however, has sought to maintain a similar position to arms to Mexico, across the border, and last Friday, when it became apparent that negotiations of war for the Mexican revolutionists was being prepared for shipment from New York, an order was issued by the State Department to prevent clearance of vessels bearing arms for any Mexican port.

For some unexplained reason this order did not reach the proper port officials until late today after clearance papers had been issued to the Antilla.

No embargo from American ports was contemplated by the United States until the Constitutionalist captured Tampico. Then it became apparent that this government would be required to prevent shipments of munitions to the revolutionists in order to preserve neutrality as between the Huerta and Carranza factions in Mexico. This led to a decision to withhold clearance papers for any port in the southern republic and the orders were directed through the Department of Commerce.

Whether any attempt will be made by the United States to prevent the landing of the Antilla's cargo at Tampico is problematical. Army and naval officials are reported to have overruled the Antilla incident and there were reports current that several other ships had been under way for several days bound also for Tampico.

Mediation developments at Niagara Falls, particularly as to its bearing on the Constitutionalist, may prove an important factor, it was declared tonight in the State Department. The United States toward the treatment of Tampico as an open port. In some quarters it was maintained the United States could not interfere with the landing of arms for the Constitutionalist because arms for Huerta were permitted to be landed at Puerto Mexico. On the other hand, it was argued, that should a protocol be signed in Huerta and the United States representatives be agreed to at Niagara Falls, this government might be bound to prevent shipment of arms to Carranza's forces.

President Wilson and the Cabinet discussed the mediation situation early in the day and a dispatch later was sent to Commissioners Lamar and Lehmann at Niagara Falls. The message was believed to have confirmed the attitude of Carranza whose recently authorized views toward the present course of mediation have aroused considerable concern in the minds of many persons in touch with the situation.

Constitutionalist representatives in Washington did not expect today any change in the situation at Niagara Falls in so far as their participation in the negotiations was concerned. Luis Cabrera, who recently came here to confer with his Constitutionalist colleagues, Rafael Zubaran and Jose Vasconcelos, left tonight for New York to be gone several days. He said he was going on personal business. His departure was taken as an indication that the Constitutionalist policy in regard to representation at Niagara Falls is fixed and that no emergency requiring deliberation on the part of Gen. Carranza's agents here is anticipated.

Information received today from Mexico City at one of the foreign embassies outlined a plan said to be contemplated by Gen. Huerta for holding a popular election in Mexico without consulting the result of the election or the outcome of the Constitutionalist rebellion. The message stated that Huerta proposed to hold provisional elections July 5, to choose State officials, affording all the elements now at war opportunity to participate in the election.

Handsome Young Naval Officers Who Had Been Hosts to the Daughters of the White House Are Called to Account—One Resigns for the Good of the Service and the Other Is Sent Away.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, June 2.—The most unfortunate United States navy scandal in years has leaked out despite the earnest desire of President Woodrow Wilson and the most extraordinary efforts of Secretary of the Navy Joseph Daniels to suppress what lies back of the resignation of Edward C. While the direct purpose of the formation of the protective league is to defeat the proposed eight-hour labor and the minimum-wage laws, the organization will work for the benefit of the farmers on other measures also. Other meetings will be held by the committee during the week, and complete organization will be perfected before the close of the season Saturday.

George H. Hecke, County Horticultural Commissioner of Tolo; George W. Pearce, almond grower of Davis, and Mrs. Emily Hoppin of Woodland, L. F. Graham of San Jose and Frank B. McKevitt and George C. C. Teague of Ventura county said it would deliver a severe blow to the citrus industry, if adopted.

Teague said that after the cost of producing and marketing a box of oranges was paid there would be about 2 cents to provide interest on the farmers' investment.

Hecke declared that the enactment of the measure would mean the end of the condition of the laborer, because it would reduce the income of the worker and would raise thousands of jobless men from outside of the State, under the delusion that California would be a labor paradise.

Dean Hunt began a series of six lectures in the horticultural building on "Some Things the Prospective Buyer Ought to Know." His opening topic was "Investment Required for Successful Fruit Growing."

Dean Hunt was of the opinion that $4000 per year would be the gross income to be desired. This would require an investment of $15,000, based on the standard basis for estimating proper income. Dr. Hunt divided the income as follows: Labor, $1120; interest on investment, $300; expenses, $280.

FORGERY CHARGE BY URRUTIA.

SAYS MONDRAGON'S NAME WAS NOT ON DIAZ HANDBILL.

Former Minister of Gobernacion of Mexico Who Narrowly Escaped Mob in Vera Cruz Insists Document Which Inspired Violence Was Concocted by His Enemies.

BY GEORGE ADDISON HUGHES.

(BY MEXICAN CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

VERA CRUZ, June 2.—Handbills signed by former Mexican Minister of Gobernacion Urrutia will be circulated here tomorrow if the authorities permit it, in which he brands the signature to the anti-Felix Diaz literature a forgery. Former Minister of War Mondragon's name is signed to the Diaz proclamations which were distributed here by Urrutia's arrival in his flight from the capital and which directly led to the mob demonstration against him.

The handbills Urrutia declares Mondragon never wrote the attack against Diaz and he says he has the original letter in his possession. Refugees arriving here today from the capital verify the story of attempts to assassinate Huerta on Friday afternoon, and of the execution of the young agricultural cadets held responsible, following the news here Monday of report that Huerta had resigned. Friday, was daily expected to flee the capital.

Constitutionalist agents declared he would never be able to escape alive. They say his disappearance from the capital is a sign of the situation for a general uprising and that he will suffer Madero's fate at the hands of men now ostensibly loyal to him, but really Constitutionalist agents.

APPROVE BILL TO DIVIDE STATE

Partition of Chihuahua

Object of Measure.

Federal Congress in Session

Takes New Action.

Death of British Subject to Own Rashness.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

MEXICO CITY, June 2.—The Senate approved today the government bill providing for the territorial division of the republic, dividing the State of Chihuahua into two Federal Territories and one State, and clearing the State of Morelos to Federal Territory.

The bill will go into effect immediately.

The discussion of the bill among the oil concession awarded Minister Madero to Pedro Barrios and Gen. Francisco Romero postponed indefinitely at the request of the representatives of almost all the oil companies operating in the territory, as would be furnished them proving that the new concession was unfavorable both to the oil companies and to the government.

According to official information received today by the British Ministry the death of Frederick Green, a British subject, at San Marcos, April 30, was due to his own rashness. He is reported to have been through the streets flourishing a revolver and shouting Viva. He was surrounded by a mob who tried to arm him, but Green resisted and was shot by a citizen.

Orders were issued by the War Office today to the military authorities in Mexico to take the most vigorous campaign against the followers of pata.

Two sharp earthquake shocks occurred at Guadalupe yesterday morning. No damage of importance has been reported.

WITH NEGRO HUSBAND.

White Woman Claiming Protection of Mexican Police.

Ruth Moore, a prepossessing woman about 30 years old, and alleged husband, Charles Moore, negro, were arrested at midnight the request of the police department, on a charge that they were implicated in a smuggling white slavery conspiracy.

Upon being questioned, the woman declared that she is prominently known to the police. Before taking into custody the woman alleged to have had a mix-up with negro named William Williams at Hotel Longfellow, which she claimed to be the scene of the conspiracy.

As soon as she was identified as the Mexican "smuggling" question officers lost no time in running her negro husband.

Both the woman and negro known to the police. Before taking into custody the woman alleged to have had a mix-up with negro named William Williams at Hotel Longfellow, which she claimed to be the scene of the conspiracy.

DREADNOUGHT FOR THE NAVY.

Three Battleships Authorized by the Senate Bill.

One to Be Built from Sale of Two Obsolete Craft.

Construction by Government

Causes Wide Division.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The Senate late today passed the annual appropriation bill, carrying about $141,000,000 providing for the administration of the navy, in addition to the building of a third modern dreadnought with money to be derived from the sale of the battleships Idaho and Mississippi.

The measure now goes to conference between the two houses. It was expected that an amendment was added to create a special committee to report on the location and construction of a new armor-plate factory. A similar provision in the measure as it passed the House had been eliminated by the Senate committee.

The cause in the bill directing the building of a new battleship at a government shipyard led to a prolonged discussion.

Advocates of governmental construction contended the Secretary of the Navy was handicapped by a system of accounting which required him to charge to construction large sums for the other national defense yards. Finally an amendment offered by Senator Blair, who was opposed to the construction of a new battleship at a government shipyard, was adopted. It directed the Secretary to deduct such items as in his judgment should be charged to the maintenance of plants.

Senator Vanderman sought to amend the bill so as to appropriate for only one new battleship. Senator Brandegee contended for three. All these amendments were defeated.

Senator Vanderman declared there should be more of the golden rule and less of the "rule of war." "Does not the Senator believe we ought to prepare for war if this country is going to invade another merely to usurp the property of that country?" he asked.

HOW REVISION HITS THE FARMER.

REPORTS DECREASE BUT IMPORTS OF FOODSTUFFS SHOW INCREASE.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, June 2.—With the home demand for domestic foodstuffs almost equalling production, the United States is not only reducing its exports, but is increasing its imports of certain foodstuffs. This is one of the striking features of a review today by the Department of Commerce of the foreign trade during the first six months under the tariff.

Figures show that imports of foodstuffs in their natural condition, including food animals, increased from $117,194,237 in the half year ending with March, 1913, to $143,421,558 during the corresponding period this year.

Imports of foodstuffs in their manufactured form, however, decreased from $105,744,924 to $100,987,578. The increase in imports of all food products in the period named approximated over $50,000,000.

Figures of exports are even more striking. Of crude foodstuffs, exports fell off more than 50 per cent. while prepared foodstuffs also declined.

Exports of "crude foodstuffs" fell from $115,150,453 in six months period ending March, 1913, to $100,987,578 during the corresponding period this year and manufactured products from $100,987,578 to $100,987,578.

Food articles showing largest increases in imports were beef, cattle, corn, wheat, rice, macaroni, fruits, molasses and edible oils.

CLAYTON BILL ON LAST LAP.

Laid Aside in the House for the Final Vote.

Reynolds Securities Measure Next on Programme.

Taken Up for General Debate to Last Ten Hours.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The Clayton anti-trust bill, second measure on the administration anti-trust programme, was completed in Committee of the whole by the House today and laid aside awaiting a final vote.

The completion of the Clayton bill left only the Reynolds railroad securities bill to be acted upon by the House in order to complete consideration of the administration programme. Ten hours of general debate are allowed on the Reynolds bill and House leaders will make an effort to complete the final measure by the end of this week.

When the detailed consideration of the Reynolds bill is completed the three measures will be taken from the "Committee of the Whole" into the House for final vote.

As finally agreed upon, the Clayton bill contains provisions aimed against price discrimination, prohibiting arbitrary refusal to sell natural mineral products, forbidding sale or lease of goods conditioned upon the agreement of purchaser or lessee not to deal in competing products, making degrees in suits brought by the United States under the anti-trust laws conclusive evidence in private suits against the same.

The much-debated labor sections of the bill provide that nothing in the anti-trust laws shall be construed to forbid the existence and operation of farmers' associations and labor unions, and that such organizations and their members shall not be construed or held to be combinations or conspiracies in restraint of trade.

The measure also limits the use of injunctions in labor disputes, legalizes strikes, primary boycotts, peaceful picketing and the peaceful assemblage of strikers, and provides that any act which results in contempt of court committed outside of the presence of the court, or not near enough to interfere with the administration of justice.

The penalty section would impose a fine of $5000 upon corporations convicted of violating the law, and a similar fine or imprisonment for one year as a penalty for directors, officers, agents or employees who aid, abet, direct or do acts which result in violations of the law by the corporation.

The House adopted without a record vote the Webb amendment declaring that none of the acts specified, peaceful strikes, boycotts and picketing—shall be construed to be legal. All other amendments were rejected, and the whole section covering the injunction question was adopted.

ton society and the inner navy circles with the greatest sensation in many years. Now it is known only to a few, for naval officers themselves, who have heard it, dare not discuss it freely even among themselves, fearing the wrath of the navy should it ever be traced back to them. But an officer on duty at Washington on a visit to this city, told the story in confidence to several intimate friends at a small dinner at a cabaret restaurant. Some of the officers on duty at the New York navy yard.

Both men are young and handsome, and have means independent of their salaries. They have entertained lavishly on the Mayflower. The Mayflower is the President's personal yacht. Her officers are line officers of the navy and they are generally the personal selections of the President himself and the Secretary of the Navy. Necessary qualifications for an officer on duty on the Mayflower are good looks, money, reasonable quantities, good birth and social graces.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SELECTION. Among the officers selected for the Mayflower under the Wilson administration was Ensign Douglas. Mr. Little had already been on duty on the Mayflower for some time, and he had been seen before on the same ship, became fast friends.

During the latter part of last year there had been rumors from time to time of happenings on the President's yacht to the effect that the eyes of advocates of grape juice and would shock men by no means praiseworthy.

These rumors were not believed. Douglas and his automobile were seen as often as ever on Pennsylvania street, Chevy Chase and wherever the socially select gathered. So was Little. At the Army and Navy Club ranking officers, if they mentioned the yacht to the Secretary of the Navy. It was whispered about at the Army and Navy Club, and the President's yacht.

Washington, June 2.—When the Interstate Commerce Commission resumes its investigation into the affairs of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad tomorrow three directors of the road, William Skinner, Henry McHugh and J. S. Elston, and a former member of the board, Laurence Minot, will be required to testify.

Mr. Minot was on the New Haven directors during a part of the time that Charles S. Mellen was president of the road. All four of the witnesses will be questioned regarding financial transactions of the New Haven concerning which Mr. Mellen testified during the four and a half days he was on the stand.

There were persistent reports today that William Rockefeller would be one of the New Haven directors called in the near future, despite the affidavit by the aged financier's physician that he is not in a condition to be subjected to examination.

The inspection of the books of J. P. Morgan & Co., the president of the records of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, as they relate to New Haven questions begun in New York last week by examination of the company is still in progress. Officials of the company think it will take at least another week to complete this work.

The same information had it that the Constitutionalists looted a few households, the property of Huerta sympathizers who left with the Federal army.

French Artificial Wood. [New York Tribune.] Information has been made public concerning an artificial wood, which it is stated, will be of great value as a substitute for natural wood. The new product has been found after years of study and practical experiments, the most recent of which have given eminently satisfactory results. The process consists in transforming straw into a solid material having the resistance of oak. The straw, after being cut into small pieces, is reduced to a paste by boiling, to which certain chemicals are added. When the paste has been reduced to a homogeneous mass it is put into presses, and beams, laths and mouldings of all sizes are readily made.

EXECUTE HUERTA OFFICERS.

Rebels Under Col. Reyes Defeat Federals at Salinas and Shoot Fourteen Prisoners.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) DURANGO (Mex.) June 1.—(Delayed.) The decisive engagements with Federal troops between Zacatecas and San Luis Potosi were won by the Constitutionalists May 20 and 21 according to reports received today by Gen. Carranza. Col. Fernando Reyes, with six hundred men of the command of Gen. Carranza-Torres who is investing San Luis Potosi, administered a decisive defeat to a large Federal force at Salinas, and later also defeated a force sent from San Luis to reinforce the Salinas garrison.

The fighting at Salinas lasted twenty-eight hours, the Federal loss in the battle being forty-six privates and four officers. Fourteen Federal officers were captured and were executed and thirty-seven privates captured and were liberated. The Federals telegraphed San Luis Potosi for reinforcements, which did not arrive until after the first battle. They were met outside the town and driven back.

Among the officers executed was Col. Carlos Chavez, two lieutenant-colonels, one major, four captains and six lieutenants. Col. Reyes captured two machine guns, 3,000 cartridges, 200 rifles, 123 horses and other munitions. Col. Catoca of the command under Gen. Francisco Natera investing Zacatecas, captured a Federal troop train at Pines on May 31, killing sixty of the Federals, capturing a considerable supply of ammunition and a former member of the Federal force.

Constitutionalist forces operating against Zacatecas and San Luis Potosi are in the hands of wire and are co-operating. Gen. Carranza announced today that he would give a statue of Francisco Madero to the city of Durango.

NEW HAVEN INQUIRY. Three Directors of Road to Be Called as Result of Mellen's Testimony. (BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) WASHINGTON, June 2.—When the Interstate Commerce Commission resumes its investigation into the affairs of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad tomorrow three directors of the road, William Skinner, Henry McHugh and J. S. Elston, and a former member of the board, Laurence Minot, will be required to testify.

Mr. Minot was on the New Haven directors during a part of the time that Charles S. Mellen was president of the road. All four of the witnesses will be questioned regarding financial transactions of the New Haven concerning which Mr. Mellen testified during the four and a half days he was on the stand.

There were persistent reports today that William Rockefeller would be one of the New Haven directors called in the near future, despite the affidavit by the aged financier's physician that he is not in a condition to be subjected to examination.

The inspection of the books of J. P. Morgan & Co., the president of the records of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, as they relate to New Haven questions begun in New York last week by examination of the company is still in progress. Officials of the company think it will take at least another week to complete this work.

JAPS REFUSE MEXICAN ARMS. WASHINGTON, June 2.—A report from the cruiser Albany, sent at 3 p.m. Monday, says the Japanese steamer Seto Maru arrived at Salina Cruz, Mex., on Sunday and left for Peru without landing arms or ammunition. It is understood by Admiral Howard that the Japanese line declined to carry them.

BURN MONTEREY CASINO. FEDERAL SETS THE FIRE. (BY A. P. DAY WIRE.) MONTEREY, (Calif.) June 2.—The only structure burned by the Federal when they evacuated Saltillo, May 28, was the Casino, according to information regarded as authentic, reaching here yesterday. The same information had it that the Constitutionalists looted a few households, the property of Huerta sympathizers who left with the Federal army.

French Artificial Wood. [New York Tribune.] Information has been made public concerning an artificial wood, which it is stated, will be of great value as a substitute for natural wood. The new product has been found after years of study and practical experiments, the most recent of which have given eminently satisfactory results. The process consists in transforming straw into a solid material having the resistance of oak. The straw, after being cut into small pieces, is reduced to a paste by boiling, to which certain chemicals are added. When the paste has been reduced to a homogeneous mass it is put into presses, and beams, laths and mouldings of all sizes are readily made.

EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD.

Credit Men's Annual Meeting.

The Los Angeles Credit Men's Association will hold its annual meeting Wednesday evening of next week at 8 p.m., at the Clark Hotel. The speakers will be Judge Craig on "Security," and George L. Keister, on "Odd Points of Law."

Roads Arrive Friday.

Miss Thelma Hollingsworth, queen of the Portland Rose Festival, and her eleven maids of honor, will arrive Friday instead of Thursday, according to advice received yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce. They will stay at the Oregon room in Exposition Park while here and will be entertained by various organizations.

College School Exhibit.

The annual exhibit in the art and domestic science departments of the Girls' Collegiate School will be held on Friday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock and in the evening from 7:30 to 9:30. The art exhibit will be under the direction of Miss Leta Harlock and the domestic science exhibit under the direction of Mrs. A. A. MacDonald.

Free Lecture on Bird Life.

The California Audubon Society will hold its annual meeting in the Young Woman's Christian Association building at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. At 3:30 Dr. Walter P. Taylor, curator of mammals in the University of California, will deliver a lecture on "Wild Life Conservation in the Past, Present and Future," illustrated with sixty-four stereoscopic slides. The public is invited.

Salesmen Celebrate.

Celebrating the close of sale of the new Encyclopedia Britannica, the sales force which has been handling the volumes last evening gave a complimentary dinner at Latta's to F. E. Barton, manager for Southern California. Among those present were Dr. J. Gibson Carroll, H. E. Bailey, W. J. Whalen, D. Offert, R. J. McKenzie, A. Matthews, P. L. McDonald and H. E. Hockney.

Ready Board Meeting.

Vice-President Booth of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, who recently returned from a tour of South America, will discuss trade opportunities in Latin America at the weekly meeting of the Ready Board, President W. W. Mines and other recently-elected officers of the board will be formally installed at this luncheon, which will be given at the Hotel Clark. The reports of the retiring officers will also be made and plans perfected for the sending of a delegation to the Pittsburgh convention of ready organizations.

Girl's Issue in School.

Her mind becoming suddenly unbalanced, Miss Mabel J. de Pencier, 34 years, of Sierra Madre, yesterday afternoon became violent in a crowd of store on Broadway. Before being overpowered the woman attacked and clubbed with an umbrella Mrs. Lyle Keenan, Mrs. A. Keen and W. P. Edmondson, all of whom were strangers to her. Operatives from the Nick Harris agency succeeded in overpowering Miss de Pencier. She was taken to the Receiving Hospital and later to the County Hospital, pending an examination by a lunacy commission.

Eight-Grade Orders.

An historical tryout for those to take part in the eighth grade public school commencement will be held in the Los Angeles High School auditorium on Wednesday, June 17, at 8 o'clock, p.m., when six or seven of the fifteen orations to be presented will be read for presentation at the time of the closing exercises, June 23. Miss Kate McCarthy, principal of Vernon school, and W. B. Frackleton, principal of Second-street school, together with an appointee from Los Angeles High School not yet selected, will form the committee to select the orations.

Kruttschnitt Changes Plan.

Reversing his previous decision to proceed immediately on an inspection of the Imperial Valley, Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Southern Pacific and allied companies, spent yesterday in a trip over the San Bernardino extension of the Pacific Electric. He left here in President Shoup's private car, accompanied by Shoup and President Spruille of the Southern Pacific, and went to Rialto, where the party was picked up by automobiles and taken into Colton and then to Riverside. Returning to Colton in the evening, Kruttschnitt and Spruille were joined by Vice-President and General Manager Shoup of the Southern Pacific and went on East from there. They will probably return here Friday.

Norton Charges Graft.

Superior Norton, yesterday charged at a meeting of Supervisors that there has been graft in the chain gang in the Topanga road district. He was not specific, but an investigation was ordered. Grand Jury Expert Vinhuisen is supposed to have uncovered the evidence, said Norton.

is charged that some of the prisoners were carried on the county pay roll as citizens and that money was collected for but never paid to them. The Jail Committee will look into the matter.

SOURCE OF MUDDY WATER.

Ranchman Catches Waste From San Fernando Dam and Plays Hob With City Supply—Noted Visitor.

Since Sunday the telephone of a chief engineer and other officials of the city water department have been a source of disturbance in their sunny households. Day and night they have jingled incessantly, the inquiries wanting to know what in tarnation is wrong with the city water.

Yesterday an irate consumer appeared at the office of the department with a bottle of the stuff, which he declared made a dirty man dirtier when he tried to take a bath.

Chief Engineer Mulholland explained the cause of the trouble, as to the cause, but the cure will require a day or two. The San Fernando dam is being constructed by hydraulic system and an enterprising ranchman took advantage of the tallings that were running to waste and flooded several acres of his lands. On Sunday he didn't work and the water accumulated into a vast lake behind a railroad embankment, until it would hold no more. Then, bristling over, it ran into the river, thence found its way into the city reservoir, "playing the very devil," as the engineer put it.

The Sunnyside Water Company yesterday offered to sell its 22,000 feet of pipe of various dimensions to the city for $1, provided the city water is turned in and a few other conditions complied with. One of the obstacles is that about 30 per cent. of the system is outside the city limits, the whole covering that section bounded by Manchester avenue and sixty-fourth street, Vermont, and Moneta avenues. The chief engineer will look it over next week.

Engineer Willcocks, who built the famous Aswan dam in Egypt, which cost $20,000,000 and quadrupled the irrigated lands of the Nile, will be in this city the latter part of the week and will make an inspection of the Los Angeles aqueduct in company with Chief Engineer Mulholland. He is now the reclamation service of the United States government, and his judgment of the local project will carry great weight, whatever it may be.

UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS.

There are telegrams at the Western Union for P. H. Allen, J. A. Aderer, Antonio Baratto, Belmont Bufel, George Briggs, Rex A. Backus, Max L. Brunner, Carlos Credner, R. E. Comfort, D. E. Davis, Mrs. P. M. Early, P. C. Gernert, R. M. Galen, H. James, Mrs. E. Nevaumont, Miss Desca, Todd, Pay Thomas and Mrs. Jack Van. At the Postal for Carlton Music Company, Mrs. F. E. Hart and Mrs. I. M. Vaidner.

"MORE DEADLY THAN MALE."

Emma Spencer, a formidable-looking negro woman, was held to the Superior Court yesterday at a preliminary hearing before Judge Reeves. She is charged with purse-snatching and assault upon a Slavonian, whose name the court or prosecutors could neither guess, sneeze or whistle. It was related that Emma not only rolled the Slav for his purse, but stabbed him in the back when he complained of the treatment. A woman purse-snatcher is a rare bird in the criminal aviary, and the case attracted some attention.

GIRLS ACCUSE STUDENTS.

Ruth Bartle and Esther McLean, girl accusers of Rush Meadows, a young student, faced each other in Justice Reeves' court yesterday, when Meadows was arraigned to plead to the charges brought by the girls. Justice Reeves agreed to extend the time of arraignment until Friday, when, he said, he will increase Meadows' bond to $500 if the young man is not ready to plead at that time.

BUSINESS BRIEVITIES.

Another shipment of the delightful new "Oliver Twist" wash suits (all guaranteed fast color) for little boys has just been received at Harris & Frank's (Spring near Fifth). They are for sale at $2.50 to $5.00 and are priced from $2.50 to $5.00.

"BENJAMIN CLOTHES"

That's the sign on the top of our store.

It's a pretty good sign—don't you think?—of what we think of Benjamin clothes?

We are exclusive clothiers. We have—we think—a very good reputation as merchants and clothiers.

If, then, the genuine worth of Benjamin Clothes did not harmonize with that reputation, don't you think we would be very careful not to display that large Benjamin electric sign on the top of our building?

We are exclusive agents for Benjamin Clothes and we are appropriately proud of it.

WOMEN'S MODES TO BE MORE MODEST.

Yes, it has been some season, so far, for those with good eyesight. A decidedly enjoyable year. And we've contributed our share. We've given the girls a treat, when they looked at Brauer-suited men, just as great as the men have enjoyed when they looked at the un-suited girls.

More we cannot do! Modesty and morality are not our business.

SALT LAKE TO BUILD LINE OVER MOUNTAINS. Three-Million Dollar Expenditure Is Practically Assured by Clark.

Former Senator and Copper Magnate Radiates Optimism, but Decries Talk of Government Ownership of Railroads—Says Would Sound Knell of Representative Government.

SENATOR Clark has faith in the future. He evidenced it yesterday on his arrival from Salt Lake, of which he is president, by the announcement that the line, of which he is president, is completing the expenditure of $3,000,000 to build its own line across the mountains from San Bernardino to Daguerre.

"The benefits will, I believe, justify the expenditure," said Clark. "A definite announcement of intentions regarding this project will be made from my New York office shortly after I get back there."

Clark came here direct from Jerome, Ariz., where he witnessed the "coming-in" of his $2,000,000 copper mine, and where he has expended $1,000,000 on a town and an industrial railroad. He is the guest of his 11-year-old grandson, W. A. Clark III, his son, W. A. Clark II, and daughter-in-law, having been called to the city by the serious illness of his mother.

Clark is one of the nation's richest men, and one of the nation's most powerful. He is the owner of the Salt Lake and San Bernardino railroads, and is the president of the Salt Lake and San Bernardino railroads. He is the owner of the Salt Lake and San Bernardino railroads, and is the president of the Salt Lake and San Bernardino railroads.

His Visit Involves a Great Work.

Former Senator W. A. Clark, Multi-millionaire copper man and president of the Salt Lake, who arrived here yesterday intent on plans for the future, in spite of his seventy-five years. He is the guest of his grandson, W. A. Clark III, who is 11 years of age.

SHOOTING DOWN OFFICER FOR PURSUING HIM.

Anarchistic Fugitive, Wanted for Beating a Board Bill, Fires Upon Patrolman Watt, Probably Mortally Wounding Him, and Escapes—Revolver Empty at Would-Be Assassin.

WHILE pursuing a fugitive wanted on the charge of evading a hotel-keeper, Patrolman Edward P. Watt, 27 years old, attached to the Central Station, was shot and probably mortally wounded last night by Richard S. Rynek, a drunken painter and paperhanger, who has recently made his headquarters at the I.W.W. Hall.

The shooting occurred on San Julian street, near Seventh, just as the officer was about to seize the fugitive. The wounded officer was placed in a passing automobile and taken to the Emergency and General Hospital, where his condition was pronounced serious.

Police Surgeon Wiley found that the bullet had entered Watt's left side directly under the heart, passing through the lower part of the stomach and intestines, and was lodged under the skin at the right thigh.

Watt was standing at Seventh and San Julian streets with Refugio Garcia, whom he had arrested on a charge of intoxication, when Tom Hall, proprietor of a lodging-house at No. 123 Wall street, who had been chasing Rynek, approached and requested that the patrolman take up the pursuit, as the former had become evasive.

Turning his prisoner over to M. K. Hall, a passer-by, the patrolman started to follow Rynek south on San Julian street.

They had gone but a few paces when the fugitive suddenly turned and fired point blank at the officer.

Rynek dropped a straw hat during the firing and continued running south on San Julian street. In a small lodging-house, he tried to secure a room for the night, but was requested to get out when he admitted that he had shot a man and was trying to escape. From this point all trace of the man was lost.

Police officers responded to the alarm and within five minutes were on the trail of the would-be assassin. A number of witnesses were interviewed.

Uncle Sam Interested.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY MAY INDICT CROOKS.

THE Long Beach swindle, involving the separation from Mrs. Mary T. Eeles, a widow, of about $15,000 through the clever machinations of a man known as Tom McCullough, shifted yesterday from the beach city to the Federal building, and three witnesses were examined by the grand jury.

"PROTECTION" THAT INJURES. Workman Suffers by Queer Compensation Act.

Boynton Law Premier Here Is a Boomerang.

Bars Mishap's Needy Victim from Any Recovery.

The devious workings of the Workman's Compensation Act, one of the laws passed under the whip of the Johnson administration, acted as a bar yesterday to a poor man, badly injured in a collision with a taxicab, recovering damages for his hurts. Under an instructed charge the jury in Judge Wilbur's court yesterday returned judgment for the defendant, the effect of which is to transfer to the company in which his employer had insured him, the right to bring suit. Being a foreign corporation, it is not probable that the insurance company will take any action.

Albert Morrison, an employee of the Murray Baking Company, while driving his wagon on East Fifth street February 26, last, was run into by one of the taxicabs of a local taxicab service. The bakery wagon was overturned and Morrison seriously injured. He brought suit for $25,000 damages.

The defendant, S. E. McKee, through Attorney Drake, Kuerst and McElroy, raised the point that at the time of the accident both the Murray Baking Company and Morrison were subject to the Workman's Compensation Act; that Morrison had been insured in the London & Lancashire Insurance and Accident Company and that lawful demand had been made upon the insurance company for the injuries sustained by Morrison.

The insurance company made the necessary payments to Morrison, amounting in all to $25. The final receipt was one of the exhibits of the case. In view of these facts, McKee asked the court to instruct the jury to find for the defendant, which Judge Wilbur did. The instruction in part read:

"The evidence in this case shows that previous to the commencement of this action the plaintiff in the case had made a claim for and had been paid money by the insurance company mentioned in the answer, and the effect of that proceeding under the law is to transfer to the insurance company the right of action which the plaintiff has, if any, against the defendant to the insurance company, so that after the acceptance by him of the benefits of this law, the right to bring this suit and maintain it, rests not in himself, but in the insurance company."

The evidence on that subject is without conflict or contention, and therefore the court instructs you to bring in a verdict herein in favor of the defendant, and of course the instructions of the court confine the issue to that one question of the transfer of the right of action."

This is the first test of the act in this phase of it in the local courts. The payment of $25 insured money to Morrison knocked him out of obtaining against a concern other than by which he was employed, indeterminate damages for the action injuries he alleged he had received.

FIVE DOLLARS A COPY.

That's What It Costs a Petty Thief for Taking "The Times" From Lawns of Its Subscribers.

A new chapter in the campaign to teach petty thieves that it is a costly proposition to steal copies of The Times from route owners had its inception yesterday morning in Police Judge Williams' court, when Jesse Payne, a young negro, arrested a second time for the same offense, was found guilty and fined $15 for stealing three copies of the paper. He was given the alternative of fifteen days in jail, but preferred to pay the stipulated "price" of $5 for each copy of the paper he had stolen.

Appearing as witnesses against Payne were the two Hollywood route boys, Lysie Baines and Ralph Gendron, from whom the papers were stolen. Deputy City Prosecutor Brown demanded that Payne be given an extreme penalty in view of the fact that he was once before arrested, found guilty, and let off on the promise that he would be good.

"I agree with you," said Justice Williams, "and to show you that The Times is a valuable paper, I will fine him $5 for each copy that he stole. And in sentencing him I want it understood that it is not the intrinsic value of the paper that I am considering. The Times is a truly valuable paper in its community and its readers are not to be denied the privilege of reading it through the lawlessness of thieves."

Payne paid the fine and was warned that the penalty would be much heavier should he be caught stealing The Times again. He has already been caught three times in the first time he was let go with a warning and was not arrested. The route owners declared they will keep a close watch, and all thieves in the future will be prosecuted.

DOG ROUTS BURGLAR.

Bull Terrier Gets Intruder by Seat of the Trousers and Kicks Latter, Though Thief Escapes.

"Spot," a little white bull terrier belonging to E. H. Kohlhaagen, No. 115 East Fifty-fourth street, early yesterday morning fought a victorious battle with a burglar, who attempted to enter the Kohlhaagen residence. Laying hold of the burglar's back and barking and yelping so that the entire neighborhood was awakened, the dog succeeded in driving the intruder off.

Hearing the conflict Kohlhaagen rushed to the window just in time to see the burglar make off minus the seat of his trousers, which "Spot" held firmly between his powerful teeth. The dog was injured badly in the fray, being cut in several places about the body. The burglar attempted to enter the house through an open window, when he was found by "Spot," who immediately gave battle.

OVER THREE THOUSAND GO. Immense Number to Graduate in City's Public Schools This Month.

Over 3000 pupils will graduate from the Los Angeles city schools this month. Of this number 2254 will graduate from eighth grades and about 1000 from high schools. Of those graduating from high schools about 400 contemplate going to college, according to reports from the various high schools.

The graduation exercises of the eighth grade will be held at Manual Arts High School Tuesday, June 23, at 10 o'clock a.m. Los Angeles High will hold its graduation exercises on June 25 at 9 o'clock a.m. at Temple Auditorium. Polytechnic High will hold its exercises in Manual Arts High auditorium June 25 at 8 o'clock p.m. Hollywood High on June 25 at 8 o'clock p.m. Manual Arts High, June 24 at 8 o'clock p.m. Los Angeles High Junior College will celebrate Recognition Day on Thursday, June 25, and the fourteen graduates will receive graduation credentials with the High School graduation class.

LOSERS OWN TEETH.

Dentist Badly Used Up in Scrap in Central Park With Patron Whose Check He Declines to Accept.

A check for $4 was the cause of a dental encounter yesterday afternoon in Central Park with Dr. C. W. Lyman and J. J. Lawless as principals. Lyman, who is a dentist with offices on Sixth street, near Hill, lost several teeth, and Lawless, a patron, was taken to the City Jail on a charge of disturbing the peace.

According to the dentist, Lawless (tendered the check for payment for dental work done. Lyman refused to accept the paper, and Lawless beat a retreat from the office, followed closely by Lyman. When Central Park was reached, the dentist displayed his skill as a wrestler by throwing his patron to the ground. His prisoner was released on promise to submit peacefully to arrest, but no sooner had he gained his feet than Lawless began with many uppercut jabs to loose the dentist's teeth. A patrolman stopped the battle and arrested Lawless.

"Well, well, what's this mean?" asked Capt. Fredericks. "Dudley Robinson, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Young Republican Club of Los Angeles, then stepped forward and in a few words urged Capt. Fredericks to permit the Young Republicans to proclaim him as their accepted candidate for nomination for Governor."

"I WILL MAKE IT." When Robinson concluded there was an ominous pause. "Uncle George" Harris, who was lying on a haycock, jumped to his feet and said, "It's your duty, captain. Take it, it's your duty to the people."

Capt. Fredericks turned, smiled at his old employee and pondered for a minute or more. Then he raised his head, looking straight into the eyes of the young men before him, said: "You have assumed a great responsibility. I know that you are sincere in your request. I had honestly decided not to enter the field for Governor and intended to open a law office at the expiration of my term as District Attorney. I love the Republican party and its glorious record of."

ENTERS RACE FOR GOVERNOR. Capt. Fredericks Decides to Make the Run.

Reconsiders at the Behest of Young Republicans.

Committee Calls Upon Him
at His Ranch.

Capt. John D. Fredericks yesterday reconsidered his decision not to be a candidate for Governor and accepted the proposal of the Young Republicans of California to enter the race. Fifty prominent young business and professional men representing the Young Republican Clubs of Los Angeles, San Diego and several other cities waited upon Capt. Fredericks at his ranch yesterday afternoon and urged him to make the run.

The young men found Capt. Fredericks working in the hay field half a mile from his ranch house. He wore overalls and a torn white shirt and had just finished stacking a haycock when the young men swooped down upon him. "Uncle George" Harris, foreman of the ranch, was at Fredericks' side.

"Well, well, what's this mean?" asked Capt. Fredericks. "Dudley Robinson, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Young Republican Club of Los Angeles, then stepped forward and in a few words urged Capt. Fredericks to permit the Young Republicans to proclaim him as their accepted candidate for nomination for Governor."

Children's Dresses $4.50 to $15.00 Vals. $2.50

Dresses of lawn, linen, poplin and rep; white, pink, blue and tan color. Tastefully trimmed with hand embroidery, those of lawn trimmed with lace. Nearly all are soiled a little or stained. Sizes for girls from 8 to 14 years.

White Blouses The June Sale

For today new models have been brought forward, some that were not shown Monday and Tuesday. The styles are as pleasing, the values are just as tempting as any we've shown and the assortments are as satisfying.

Blouses at $1.50

Valies, crepes and batistes; styles you would expect to pay $2.00 or $2.50 for.

Blouses at $2.50

More fashionable affairs with the daintiest of lace trimmings, of the late collars and sleeve effects. Voiles, crepes, handkerchief linen and sheer batistes, styles that should bring $3.00 or more.

Blouses at $2.95

This lot are odds and ends of broken lines embracing many values; some are muslin and soiled. Former prices $4.50, $5.00, $6.50 and $8.50.

June Clearance Trimmings

The attention of dressmakers and those with a new dress in mind, is called to this June Clearance of high-class trimming specialties.

Embroidered net bands, edges and appliques, embracing many Oriental effects; formerly 50c to $1.25, at 25c.

Hand and medallions in the most gorgeous of gold and silver and other bright Oriental colors; these novelties formerly sold from $1.00 to $5.00 yard. Sale price 50c to $1.00.

Panama Hats $5.00

Judges of Panama are agreeably surprised when told the price of these. Besides being exceptionally fine they are shaped to the latest fashions. Some have pretty Roman bands, others are untrimmed. We've not seen anything to equal them—even near their equal—at $5.00.

HANDS ACROSS WESTERN SEAS.

Peace Continually Message Nippon Brings.

Mikado Recognizes Friendly Reception Here.

Southland's Beauty Entrances Naval Visitors.

An international significance was given the banquet which Consul-General Y. Numano of Japan tendered the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at the Hotel Alexandria yesterday by the announcement that the Mikado had nominated Rear-Admiral Kuroki of the training school squadron now at anchor in Los Angeles Harbor as a vice-admiral in appreciation of the friendly spirit in which His Majesty's ships have been received in American waters.

"Your profusion of friendship have borne fruit," said Numano, in making the announcement. "We came open-handed and an atmosphere of friendship and good will has been created. It is a hero of battles in the Japanese sea is honored by our ruler by elevation to commanding rank in our navy."

The further announcement was made by Numano that an appropriation is contained in the Japanese budget for this year for the establishment of a consular office here. Kuroki followed this with the statement that Japanese merchant vessels will call at but one Pacific Coast port—Los Angeles—following the opening of the Panama Canal.

Felicity was rampant. Toasts were drunk to the Mikado and to the President of the United States, to Los Angeles and its officials, to the Chamber of Commerce and to the cementing of peaceful relationships between Japan and the United States.

CONSUL-GENERAL SPEAKS. "Los Angeles," said Numano, as he leaned across a table decked with semi-tropical flowers, "is destined to be the metropolis of Pacific North America. We were whisked this morning through a land in which the odor of the orange and the cypress hung heavy, over roads of surpassing smoothness, and of outlooks unsurpassed. Coming from a beauty-loving nation, I foretell a day when those who desire beauty added to utility will seek out this land as the Ultima Thule of their desires."

"But you want to know of Japan. We of these islands are a seafaring race and the navy is the flower of our nation. It stands as the first line of defense, but I assure you that it is the constable of the sea, the violator messenger of peace and good will to all nations."

"Now, to borrow from the sayings of Confucius: 'It is not delightful when friends visit us from distant places.' We come from distant places and we come as friends, for the sea does not divide those races that are as one people. So I believe you Americans and we Japanese to be."

The Mayor followed with a formal welcome to the city and expressed appreciation that the Japanese had officially dedicated the harbor to the usage of the war crafts of Asiatic nations.

"I do not believe that any race has been singled out by the Creator as a favorite," said Vice-President of the Chamber of Commerce. "We are rapidly forgetting our racial hatreds as increased knowledge comes to us of the hopes and ambitions of races beyond the seas. Believe me when I say that in breaking bread with you we greet you as friends and travelers down the same roads of destiny with us."

JAPANESE AND CHRISTIAN. Rear-Admiral Kuroki followed in a short speech and then Rev. K. Tsunashima, pastor of the Congregational Church in Tokyo, greeted the assembled body as a Japanese and a Christian.

"On behalf of His Majesty's naval training squadron," said Kuroki, "I express a deep sense of gratitude. We are the third fleet of Nippon to visit your waters. From others I had heard that you were unfriendly. I do not believe it now. I hope that this visit will cement former friendly relations and will cement former friendly relations."

"Your nation has been our benefactor," said Tsunashima. "The generous father always begets a generous son. The United States has been both a generous son and a big son."

Japan. My country has a message of peace and so has your country. I believe that your big America and my Japan are in the hands of Almighty God. May God bless you continually. May you see large visions. I leave with you a prayer for peace and continued welfare."

Following the banquet, which was given in the assembly-room of the Alexandria, the party visited a theater to see the moving pictures which were taken at the time of the fleet's arrival at the harbor. Kuroki and officers of the fleet will receive invited guests today aboard the Asama and Aduma.

The officers of the Japanese squadron and eighty of the seamen inspected the Times plant yesterday. They appreciated the courtesies extended to them.

PUT SORORITIES UNDER THE BAN.

PAN-HELLENE CONGRESS RULE PASSED ON TO HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS HERE.

If you are a girl going to college, you won't join a secret society in the high school. At least not if you have hope in your heart of being "bid" to join a college sorority. Because, if you do join that high school sorority, forbidden by law, you will not be elected to the college society.

This is the stand taken by the college women of the Greek-letter societies at the Twelfth National Pan-Hellenic Congress, Sept. 1, 11, Francis is just in receipt of a circular from the Press Committee of the Congress to this effect, and word was sent out yesterday to the high schools. The rule adopted reads as follows:

"No fraternity represented in the National Pan-Hellenic Congress shall bid a girl who has been a member of a so-called secret society or other secret society of similar nature existing in a high school or other school of equivalent standing, whether such society exists openly or not. This rule to apply to any person who shall either accept or retain membership in such society after September, 1915."

The societies named in the circular are those which have the best standing in the universities, being as follows: Alpha Chi Omega, Gamma Phi Beta, Phi Alpha Xi Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Sigma Kappa, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Delta, Zeta Tau Alpha, Delta Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Phi, Delta Zeta, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

PARK BAND CONCERTS.

Military Band Announces Six Programmes and Public Wants Them They May Be Continued.

Miller's Military Band, conducted by the well-known bandmaster, Prof. S. L. Miller, which has drawn vast crowds to the different parks of the city during the past four years, announces a series of high-class concerts, to begin this evening in Westlake Park and close Sunday afternoon in Hollenbeck Park. Each programme consists of eight numbers, and in each instance will afford two hours of the finest musical entertainment. The schedule is as follows: Westlake Park this evening from 7:30 to 9:30; Saturday afternoon 2:30 to 4:30; Sunday afternoon 2:30 to 4:30; Hollenbeck Park Friday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 and Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30. If the patronage of the public during these hours at the different parks shows that the music is appreciated there is a probability that the concerts will be continued throughout the summer.

In the six programmes there are no duplicates. That to be given this evening at Westlake is as follows: "Stars and Stripes Forever" ( Sousa ), "The Spring Maid" ( Reinhardt ), "The Wedding of the Winds" ( Hall ), "Poet and Peasant" ( Von Suppe ), "Rhapsody of Love" ( Brooks ), "Indian Maiden" ( Fullerton ), "Manna" ( Missud ), American airs.

Sandwiches.

"THE TIMES" SCHOOL OF DOMESTIC SCIENCE.

A TREAT for The Times School of Domestic Science next week will be a trip to the Holsum bread bakery. The day is to be next Wednesday and the time 10 o'clock a.m. After a tour of inspection of the plant luncheon will be served. Chartered cars will leave the Times Building.

The subject demonstrated yesterday was "Sandwiches," and Mrs. Haffner-Ginger made so many different kinds and made them look so attractive that every member of the class gleaned a lasting fund of information from this lesson alone.

Every girl who is old enough to cook at all likes to make these little appetizing tidbits, because sandwiches appeal to nearly every man. One little lady said it was a pity that every Los Angeles girl couldn't have attended this lesson and learned of another "man-catching" bait.

There were checkerboard sandwiches made of cleverly-manipulated slices of bread and what proved to be a revelation to everybody—green and pink butter. Not a soul in the class had ever seen butter in these shades before. They had seen so-called butter colored yellow, to make it look like the real article, but no one had seen it done deliberately without a thought of deception. For this Mrs. Haffner-Ginger used ground lettuce and parsley leaves in the green, while nasturtiums were used for the pink kind.

She served some delicious sandwiches with a delicious minced meat. Then there were fig and marmalade sandwiches and so many other different kinds that one could hardly be expected to remember them all, much less tell how attractively they were dressed up.

Mr. Gordan Says:—

In the long run only the best is cheap. Nor does that mean paying extravagant prices. Your summer suit for example. Properly made, personally tailored of some finely woven porous material it gives Comfort with Style.

And, it looks well at the start—and the finish.

"Gordan-made" of the best materials America weaves my price for such clothes is $40 and $45. Foreign fabrics run a bit higher. The range of plain colors is varied—like-wise the range of patterns. Something for each man's taste.

LARGE DAY OF HOUSEWORK

Home Purchasing Have Their Inning

Women Play Big Part Week of Prosperity

Souvenirs to Be Given Downtown Visitors

Smile your way into the pantry, Housewife, and make an inventory of the things you need. Then go to your grocer and every need can be filled with Angeles product.

For this is Pantry Inventory, another shining epoch in Prosperity Week. The Prosperity League has issued an edict to all housewives and other purchasing agents to make a list of the things they need for the week of Prosperity. The list should include all the necessities of life, from the most common to the most luxurious. The list should be made here at home. The grocer co-operate and it ought to be made in the grocery store.

Club women joined in the celebration of Prosperity Week yesterday with a vim, and will be promoting the force that makes a home a home product.

"Make the Dollar Nimble and Groceries a New Slogan," is the slogan of the Prosperity League. Trade has increased by 100 percent since the inception of Prosperity Week. The dollar has won its way. The lifting of the shopgirl has accompanied the broad grin of the grocer. The broad grin of the grocer has become infectious. The Prosperity League is ready to distribute 10,000 valentines and the latter part of week those who happen to be in downtown district will be counted on the distribution.

On the second of the seaside excursion

Grab a souvenir. Prosperity Week will be worth remembering. The Publicity Committee of the Prosperity League is receiving letters each day from Los Angeles showing living evidence of prosperity. It is here, that whatever fancy the dollar felt about its staidness was only a state of mind. That business is booming along a great old rate.

Other cities and towns in Southern California are catching the smile of the dollar. It has spread over Arizona, where confidence is gradually being restored by the wave of optimism that started on its irresistible course from Los Angeles.

Chairman H. H. Francisco of Industrial Parade Committee has selected a large committee in charge of the parade to be held Monday, 16th inst. This parade is designed to bring together a great industrial demonstration. The committee is follows:

Frank S. Coates, No. 1615 E. Seventh street; B. N. Coffman, No. 2014 Broadway; W. Murphy, 1111 East Third street; F. P. Brown, 912 Higgins building; M. Braden, No. 129 South Olive street; P. S. GO TO TRIAL TODAY.

Attorneys McKelvey and Stevens Accused of Using Mails to Defraud to Answer in Court.

The trial of Attorneys Charles McKelvey and W. H. Stevens on the charge of using the mails in the furtherance of a conspiracy to defraud will begin before Judge Wellborn on a jury in the United States District Court today.

The allegations of the indictment to which the defendants must answer are that McKelvey and Stevens, attorneys, tried to blackmail W. L. Evans of Monrovia, and Kyle MacBain of El Centro, by threatening to prosecute charge actions against them in which Irene Marie Brown, Levy and Cleo Helen Barker would appear as defendants.

Cleo Helen Barker, one of the principal witnesses in behalf of the government has disappeared, and a bench warrant has been issued for her apprehension. It is alleged that the young woman when last heard from was in Mexico.

CHINESE INDICTED.

The Federal grand jury yesterday returned an indictment against Wong Ming, alias Charles Wong, on the charge of offering a bribe of $1.50 for each five-tad can of smoking opium that Weldon B. Evans, deputy collector at Tia Juana, would allow to get across the line. The Chinese is in the County Jail.

GOLFERS READY FOR TOURNNEY.

Tom Morris Play Comes Off Very Soon.

Bad Weather Saturday Made High Pars.

San Gabriel and Annandale Favored.

BY ALMA WHITTAKER.

The Tom Morris memorial competition is the great golf event of the year in which each club in the association competes on its own links on June 14—old Tom Morris's birthday.

The Los Angeles Country Club has held the trophy for the past two years, winning by very superior scores which occasioned the usual odious comparisons with middle western clubs. This year the impression that conditions in California were altogether too advantageous so that a new system has been introduced for establishing a special par for each course for that day.

This was to be arrived at in a special competition played at each club May 19, when the average of the five best scores of the occasion was to form the special par. Presumably it was anticipated that this would lower the par in Southern California, but it has had exactly the contrary effect. This year the Los Angeles team will play against a 78 par instead of 73, and San Gabriel and Annandale against an 81 par instead of 74 and 75, respectively.

THERE ARE OTHERS.

Double the middle western and southern clubs will likewise achieve generous pars, but it is difficult to see how the competition will be benefited. It was not even essential that every prospective member of the team should play in the competition, so that in many cases the best players may really have been absent when the special par was in the making. At all events much of the excitement of the famous event will be gone.

The Annandale Country Club announced the personnel of their team yesterday. Lincoln Clark is the captain. The team proper includes A. A. French, E. N. Wright, T. R. Brown, W. H. Cornett, Paul V. Deane, Lincoln Clark, Charles H. Biggar and Hugo Johnston. The substitutes are Joseph Clark, Frank D. Tatum, L. A. Walters, Dr. West Hughes, H. O. Chaffee, E. C. Kammeyer, G. O. Gatch and H. H. Brown.

The Los Angeles team announced their dramatic personnel the day before—Norman Macbeth, Jack Jevne, R. D. Lapham, R. S. Armstrong, Judge Frederickson, E. H. Beavey, John W. Wilson and George H. Schneider—all of whom helped the team to victory last year.

LUCKY.

It has been to the advantage of Los Angeles and Annandale that the Midweek is not competing on its own account this year, so that two of the best Middleweek are affiliating themselves to their old club—Armstrong at Los Angeles and Johnston at Annandale. Los Angeles is fortunate in the strength of its substitutes who could easily form a first-class team on their own account—Frank H. Edwards, J. C. Niven, R. J. Cash, Winsor Walton, E. B. Tufts, Arthur Brady, E. H. Bagby and E. K. Farwell.

San Gabriel will finally settle their team today or tomorrow—it is not quite such a simple matter for Capt. Woodcock to pick the fowers of his flock. Bill Bacon, of course, Frank Wicks, George Cline and after that doubt and much contention. Still, if Woodcock can manage to achieve No. 1 in 1 again, as he did on Saturday, during the fatal contest, San Gabriel may indulge in lofty hopes—on an 81 par.

JOE BENZ AFTER YOUNG PITCHER.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

CHICAGO, June 2.—Joe Benz, pitcher of the Chicago American League club, looked over the children in the municipal court today, seeking to adopt a baby.

"I want a good, sturdy boy with the right kind of arms," he said. The clerk promised to look out for a boy to suit Benz's requirements. Benz was married here this spring after a tour of the world made by the New York Nationals and Chicago Americans.

Annette Kellerman is reported to have given up swimming and diving and to be planning an operatic career.

POLY BEATS STATE SCHOOL IN FINISH.

ELEVEN INNINGS TO DOWN THE WHITTIER TEAM IN GOOD GAME.

Poly and Whittier State School met on the baseball diamond yesterday at Whittier, and the Poly team came back with a 7-to-6 victory tucked away after eleven innings of great ball.

The State School team started out with a loud racket, scoring five runs in the first few innings, while Poly was unable to get a man past second base. After the fifth, the battle evened up, and with Abel doing the pitching for the Mechanics, it became a regular game. The end of the ninth came with the teams tied with six runs trailed to their credit. Poly scored the winning run in the first of the eleventh inning.

Copeland started the game for Poly, but was hooked in favor of Abel after the firing became too general to suit Coach Haslett. He became a regular game. The end of the ninth came with the teams tied with six runs trailed to their credit. Poly scored the winning run in the first of the eleventh inning.

FISHING REPORTS ARE IMPROVING.

WILL TUFTS AND PARTY HAVE GOOD LUCK FISHING ON THE MATILJA.

Fishing reports from the various trout streams around these parts are improving steadily and a record catch is reported every day. From Bear Valley to the Matilja the fishing is great, and stuffed baskets and yards are the result.

Will Tufts of the Tufts-Lyon Arms Company, and his wife, accompanied by Jim Matfield and wife, have just returned from a fishing trip on the Matilja. The party averaged thirty trout apiece for each day and they all ran large size. The fish were harder to get, but his enough to make up for the lack of quantity.

Mrs. Tufts made the record catch of the trip when she landed a twenty-one-pound steelhead trout.

FANATICS LOOSE IN NEW ORLEANS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW ORLEANS, June 2.—Organizations of women in New Orleans plan to boycott merchants who support a measure now before the Louisiana legislature to legalize betting on horse racing in Louisiana. Two mass meetings already have been held. The bill provides that New Orleans shall decide the subject for itself at a local option election. Besides the referendum feature of the bill, it provides that betting be permitted under the pari-mutuel system and the race governed by a commission, much the same as in Kentucky.

MORSE-MAMELE IN BILLIARD MATCH.

E. B. Morse, three-cushion billiard amateur champion of Los Angeles, and admittedly one of the strongest players on the Coast, is matched against Chas. Mamele, winner of Nelson's expert tournament, for 100 points, to be played in three blocks, commencing tonight.

Bruswick, patrons, assert that Morse's record of two consecutive victories over Loyd Jevne, ex-champion of the world, entitles him to be placed as one of all western experts, while Mamele's nearly clean sweep in the recent tournament shows form which will compel Morse's best efforts, and thus provide an unusual billiard treat.

PRINCETON (N. J.) June 2.—Princeton, 7; Syracuse, 2.

Coach Jim Rice of the Columbia University crew will take his carmen to the Poughkeepsie in the near future.

Philadelphia, it is estimated, has 20,000 lawn tennis enthusiasts.

TO ANNOUNCE PERSONNEL OF AMERICAN POLO TEAM.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

HEMPSTEAD (N. Y.) June 2.—The personnel of the American polo team, which will defend the international cup at Meadowbrook next week, it was stated here tonight, would be made known by H. L. Herbert, chairman of the Polo Association, in New York City tomorrow.

Unofficially it has been asserted that J. M. Waterbury, Jr., captain at No. 1; Rene LaMontagne, No. 2; Devereux Milburn, No. 3, and Lawrence Waterbury, as back, will make up the team, with Charles Cary Rumsey, Malcolm Stevenson, Harry C. Phipps and C. Perry Beadleston as substitutes.

With the American defenders playing on field No. 1 and the English challengers on field No. 2, there was excellent polo at Meadowbrook today. Owing to the death of the sister of Capt. Chespe on the Empress of Ireland, the Englishman did not play today.

Rag Time Napoleon.

DAPHNE POLLARD LITTLE BUT DOES A BIG STUNT.

IT ISN'T always size that makes the man, or the woman. Napoleon was little, and so, too, is Daphne Pollard. Not that Daphne has anything in common with "the little corporal," but it just goes to show.

Even at that, Daphne and Napoleon were and are possessed of volcanic force, and probably it is merely circumstance which made Napoleon expend his energies in battle and Daphne in ragtime. Both made a great noise.

In fact Miss Pollard still is, and that, too, without fear of being exiled and if there be a Waterloo awaiting her it is still enshrouded in the intangible mists of the future. To be sure, she almost meets her Waterloo in "A Knight for a Day," now running at the Morocco, for as Tilley, the slavey, she has to elope down a ladder.

It is a long ladder, and as has been mentioned, Daphne is very little. Hence she does anything but the expected of a woman. And much comedy is engendered through her failure to give a strictly correct impersonation.

While Miss Pollard, for quite some time, has been no stranger to the Coast, it was "The Girl Behind the Counter," her "Dixie" song being quite the hit of the show.

She's a baby six-cylinder of eccentric, ragtime, song and comedy, a living proof that usually good things come in small packages.

LEACH CROSS AFTER RITCHIE.

Now that the Ritchie-Weish fight has been called off, Leach Cross is trying to get the July 4 date with Ritchie.

He wired last night to both Coffroth and Groney that he would make almost any kind of terms to get a chance at the championship.

Vanitie Wins.

Cormack, Nat Herreshoff and Ann W. Hathaway, head sail maker for the Herreshoffs.

At the wheel of the Vanitie stood Capt. William J. Denman with the crew of M. Hoyt and Frederick M. Davies as his board of strategy. With a six-mile wind coming out of the northwest, Capt. Adams held a slight advantage on the final move and crossed the starting line at 12:46:12, while the Vanitie followed thirty-four seconds later. Shortly after the cup defense candidates got away the wind freshened to a ten-mile breeze.

NO CHANGE.

Once the Gardner sloop got her racing stride there was little change in the relative positions of the two yachts and they hurried down the sound toward the Long Island shore, trailed by a convoy of craft.

As they lifted around the first mark the Herreshoff model was leading by about a minute and a half. The second league resolved itself into a series of tacks.

The yachts found the wind stronger and both sloops replaced jib topsails with reaching jibs. Under the new sail the Vanitie picked up and in a luffing match gained rapidly on the Resolute. As they swung around the buoy for the second round of the course the wind was gradually dropping and soon the yachts with sails barely filled were virtually becalmed.

In the final breeze the Vanitie appeared to slip through the water like a mermoid and soon she had passed her rival.

STRONG FINISH.

The Vanitie turned the buoy fully a mile in the lead and with club topsail, jib and jib topsail flat as boards, fairly skimmed over the water, her lee rail almost awash and the bronze hull flashing like gold in the final dash for the finish line.

So fast did the Gardner craft sail that she was more than three miles ahead of the Resolute when the latter finally turned the second mark and followed in the wake of the Vanitie.

At the finish line the steam yachts were already clustered about the committee boat and as the victor in the first of the long series of the race scheduled for the three cup defense candidates swept across the line, sound and shore echoed with shrill shrieks of steam whistles.

Dr. Emanuel Leaker will play A. K. Rubinstein for the chess championship. The series will begin in Germany in the fall. This country may see several of the contests.

Camel

It's the Quality that sells Camels—not Premiums

No matter how much you pay for cigarettes—5c, 10c, 15c, 20c or 25c—you simply haven't got enough money to buy a smoke in the same class with Camels! You may pin your faith on Turkish, or on domestics, but you're something new coming in Camels, because they're an expert blend of choice quality Turkish and domestic tobaccos.

You buy 20 for 10c and get some pointers on what a cigarette can be when the tobacco's got the goods. Money can't get you a more delightful cigarette. Camels are mellow and smooth. The bite and parch and cigarette taste of ordinary brands are noticeable for their absence—in Camels! Stakes a dime on the Camel today.

Comprehensive June Sale of Coats and Suits, Special $16.75

No woman who is contemplating the purchase of a thoroughly good business suit or separate coat can afford to delay longer, when such values as these are obtainable. All garments advertised are new spring models, not old-style or shop-worn in any way:

Newest All-White or All-Black Sailors

These have just arrived, and are representative of the newest clever summer fashion—all-white or all-black sailors; smartly trimmed with white ostrich rumidie, white grapes, satin ribbons and wings; or the black lacquered ribbon, wings, quills.

Some hats are white, faced with black; others black, white faced.
(Millinery, Main Floor)

Among the Suits

are conservative styles in serges, granites, crepes in Bedford and poplin weaves; Gabardines, etc., in Copen, Labrador, reseed, brown, navy and black; sizes 16 to 42—and in many smart styles and designs; these garments were $22.50 to $27.50; now only $16.75.

Among the Coats

are the best-liked models in granites, eponge, serges, waffle cloths; in brown, Copen, green, navy; styles suitable for street wear, in the loose-fitting swaggar effects now in vogue, as well as other smart models; these were $22.50 to $27.50, also; you who purchase now may buy any of them for only $16.75.
(Granites, Second Floor)

Climax Hammocks, Complete, $13

Balmy summer days; cool, moonlit nights, call for just such a comfortable hammock as the one illustrated; covered with khaki, woven wire springs; front wind shield; felt mattress—you can use it for a bed, if you like; hammock alone, $9.50; wood standard, $3.50.

Cretonnes, 32c

Cities and Towns South of Tehachepi's Top Los Angeles County News

VOTE IS FOR ANNEXATION.

Linda Vista and San Rafael Both Favor It.

Opposition Hopes to Defeat Proposition Yet.

Tournament Park to Become City's Property.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
PASADENA, June 2.—At the joint election at Linda Vista and San Rafael Heights yesterday annexation to Pasadena carried.

The vote at Linda Vista was 61 for annexation and 14 against it. San Rafael Heights, where the choice was between annexation to Pasadena or to Los Angeles, polled a vote of 28 in favor of annexation and 13 opposed to it.

The San Rafael Heights residents who opposed annexation, declaring that it was unfair to link the two districts together, in the event of the vote on the question, which must be held in Pasadena before the territory can become part of this city, may change the tables around.

At a meeting held at Linda Vista last Monday night Mrs. Mary Fox of San Rafael Heights, one of the leaders of the opposition forces there, declared that should her side lose they would carry on the fight in Pasadena and attempt to defeat the project here.

"I know of at least nine persons," said Mrs. Fox last night, "who are opposed to annexation to Pasadena, so far as San Rafael Heights is concerned, but who voted for it because they feared being annexed to Los Angeles. But that could not come about unless the same trick was played on us as that was this time; namely, that of joining us with a more populous community, which is in greater need of improvements. Such a thing could not have been done, for there is no other such district in the event of proposed annexation with Los Angeles, with which San Rafael Heights could be joined, unless it would be to include the people there do not want to go into a city any more than we do."

"The announcement that an election in Pasadena must be called within twenty days is erroneous. It need not be called until a year from next November, and, as we pay no taxes until next March, I don't suppose Pasadena will be desirous of taking us in before that time. So unless Pasadena rushes the election (and I see no reason why it should) there is plenty of time yet for a good, long consideration of this matter before it is finally settled."

CITY WILL TAKE PARK.

The City Commissioners yesterday accompanied a committee of the Tournament of Roses Association to Tournament Park and, after an inspection of the property, a definite plan was decided on whereby the park will soon become the property of the city.

The greater part of the property would automatically accrue to the city September 1, next. The tournament association will deed over the remainder, and the city of Pasadena will in turn assume responsibility for the upkeep of the grounds, and, in measure, insure the success of the tournament of the future.

All that remains now to put the new arrangement into effect is the formal transfer of the property and the city of Pasadena has been strengthened and repaired, and it will be used for the time being.

The city asks the tournament association that it settle a sum to be used in case a tournament should fall short in monetary returns by reason of inclement weather. As long as the Tournament of Roses Association continues to put on the tournaments each New Year's Day, the organization is to enjoy the exclusive use of the park during the month of January.

In the negotiations that have been under way nothing has been done in reference to the tournament of the park by the Pasadena Polo Club. This organization has a clubhouse and considerable property on the grounds and Commissioner Hamilton said last night that the Commission has no doubt that polo will continue to be played there each winter as heretofore.

Jones has twice been elected to the Board of Trustees of the Fourth Ward to fill vacancies caused by death. A high tribute was paid to the dead Councilman by the Mayor.

RAILROAD INSPECTION.
Making the first inspection trip over the new electric line from Los Angeles to San Bernardino, a party of Southern Pacific and Pacific Electric officials arrived this afternoon at San Bernardino, where they will remain in a special coach, visiting Arrowhead, Highland and Redlands.

In the party were J. H. Schnitz, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Southern Pacific and allied roads; President William H. Miller, Vice President E. J. McCormick of the Southern Pacific; President Paul Shoup, General Manager of the Pacific Electric; and J. P. Pillsbury, Traffic Manager of D. W. Pontius, Engineer of Maintenance Johnson and Chief Electrician Anderson of the Pacific Electric. The party will leave for Imperial Valley tonight.

They announce the new line from Los Angeles will be opened about July 1.

EXPOSITION GUEST HOUSE.
(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SAN DIEGO, June 2.—Club women of the city have asked the County Supervisors for an appropriation to erect a guest house at the Panama-California Exposition as a headquarters for women. The Supervisors will meet tomorrow at 10 o'clock to consider the proposition that the building be a donation from the county to the exposition and afford a place where the thousands of women from all parts of the world may be suitably entertained.

SAN DIEGO, June 2.—A fleet of four big Norwegian whaling vessels from the Lofoten Islands, where they have been hunting, is in the harbor. The four vessels made a catch of 830 whales during the past season and from these 15,000 barrels of oil were obtained, which are now in the tank of the Capella 1. The vessels in the fleet are Hildaag, Morovic, Junes and Capella 1.

TRAIN DITCHED BY BRICKBAT.

VISALIA, June 2.—A brickbat that had dropped from a passing wagon derailed Southern Pacific passenger train No. 97 just at the eastern limits of Visalia at 2:30 this afternoon.

The engine left the track and turned over with the tender on top of it.

The baggage car and two passenger cars were derailed, but nobody was hurt. Engineer Bert Neils and Fireman Fred Williams had narrow escapes. Each jumped just before the engine turned over. The accident occurred on a sharp turn and would probably have had fatal consequences had the train been proceeding faster than eighteen miles an hour.

HAVE SECOND CHARGE AGAINST CHICKEN 'FANCILER'.

Now in Jail Charged With Wholesale Depredations on Hen Roosts. Is Said to Have Had Four Wives and One Divorce—May Knew New Trouble.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SAN BERNARDINO, June 2.—That Angus Weber of Los Angeles, held here on a grand larceny charge, was two kinds of a chicken fancier, appeared more than a presumption today when Dist. Atty. Goodell announced that in addition to a charge of stealing chickens from poultry ranches about the west end of the county, he will be prosecuted for bigamy if the first charge fails.

Weber is said to have found time to marry Hattie Crawford, the daughter of a prominent citizen, while he was operating a high-powered automobile at night between hen roosts and supplying Los Angeles houses with fancy fowl at remarkable profits, and according to information that the District Attorney's office has received, he was married a second time in his matrimonial career.

Weber is said to have married a Katie Henderson several years ago. Then he took Hattie Crawford for a bride, and she obtained a divorce. It is known. Weber then married May Sweeney, constituting a fulfillment of the promise he made to her, following a raid on a chicken house near Chino. F. E. Weber, a brother of Angus, was arrested last week for alleged thefts from a chicken house near Chino. F. E. (LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
HANFORD, June 2.—Enraged because residents of Kings county took advantage of the recent Kings County Carnival to show their displeasure with the conditions of the Kings county, members of the Board of Supervisors today passed a resolution condemning a street parade of floats used to show the condition of county roads. The Supervisors apologized to taxpayers for an appropriation they gave the carnival.

ARRESTS HYPNOTIST.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
RIVERSIDE, June 2.—A hypnotist, Melvin by name, was placed under arrest by Chief Corrington shortly before a performance this evening, on representations of the Humane Society. The hypnotist caused a ten-and-a-half auto truck to pass over the body of one of his subjects in an outdoor exhibition. Manager Adler of the Loring Theater secured Melvin's release pending his hearing tomorrow. At the institution of citizens the Chief earlier in the day stopped an exhibition of a hypnotist subject in a show window after a five-hour grind on a bicycle.

The report for the industrial city. Some of the Torrance representatives stated to the Supervisors that to go to Redondo over the present road, would cover a distance of twelve miles, while the proposed road would reduce it to about two-thirds the distance. It was stated that the Dominguez Land Company had donated a great portion of the land for the highway and that other private property would be secured for the project. Harry Brohaski has issued circulars calling for a meeting of the citizens to discuss the matter Wednesday evening at the pavilion auditorium.

BRILLIANT GAIETY IN GAMBOLE OF ELK HERDS.

Clocks of Beach City Stop and Neither Dawn Nor Dark Will Come During Five Days of Frolic. Twenty-five Thousand Persons See Illuminated Parade. Southern California Well Represented.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

VENICE, June 2.—Thousands of Elks invaded Santa Monica and Venice tonight for the annual gambol of the Southern California herds. Through streets gaily decorated with bunting and flags and with purple-and-white streamers everywhere in evidence, a parade preceded ceremonies at the pavilion on the pier, when the keys of the city were handed the invaders and dull care formally evicted for a term of five nights and days.

Following a long automobile parade from the clubhouse in Santa Monica, through to Windward avenue, the illuminated herds disembarked from the machines and marched down onto the pier, and thence into the beautiful pavilion, which is decorated especially for the representation of the herds. There were 200 machines in the parade, which was headed by Mayor Dudley of Santa Monica and Mayor Gerety of Venice. The parade was followed by the municipal band, the city band and the Exalted Rulers of the visiting orders. Music was furnished by the municipal band, the city band and the Exalted Rulers of the visiting orders. Music was furnished by the municipal band, the city band and the Exalted Rulers of the visiting orders.

All along the line of march the streets were resplendent with decorations and many of the homes were brilliantly illuminated. From every automobile Roman candles were exploded and Greek fire was burned on every corner.

After the parade had been dismissed, Mayor Gerety turned the city over to the Elks by presenting Exalted Ruler Ed Hindman of the local lodge with the key to Venice. Following the presentation, the gambol was formally declared open and the herds tripped rang with the "Hello Bill" salutations of the antlered herd. It is estimated that fully 10,000 persons cheered the maddest of the dance hall, where the many lodges have erected their booths.

During the night there will be no day or night in Venice, and all of the clocks stopped last night at 11, and will not be started again until the morning.

Each of the lodges is to have a special night. Tonight will be Glendale and Los Angeles night and preparations are being made to entertain 20,000 Elks and their friends.

The Reception Committee was busy all day in making arrangements for the night. There are representatives here from nearly every lodge in the Southland, and many members are accompanied by their wives. There will be a big programme of entertaining events for each afternoon and evening.

THREE ELECTIONS IN SINGLE WEEK.

WILD VOTE TODAY ON PASSING RATE-FIXING POWER TO COMMISSION.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SANTA MONICA, June 2.—Tomorrow the first of a series of three elections will be held. The voting tomorrow will be on the question of whether the city shall retain the power of rate fixing for all public-service corporations. The Mayor, Chamber of Commerce and other commercial bodies, as well as many of the prominent citizens, are in favor of and endorse passing up the power to the State Railroad Commission.

The second election will take place Thursday, when the voters will vote on bonding the city in the sum of $40,000, to be used for an adequate garbage incinerating plant, wagons and necessary equipment.

On Friday the election will call for another bonding of the city for $45,000, to be used for the purchase of two pumping fire engines, equipment, alarm system and new fire plugs.

The proposed auditorium bond election for the city of Los Angeles, which will be held next week, will probably be called in the near future. This issue will be for $150,000.

HALT REGULATING OF POOL ROOMS.

MERCHANTS OBJECT TO EARLY CLOSING; FAVOR BAN ON LIQUORS.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
ONTARIO, June 2.—A petition signed by 90 per cent. of the business men of the city was responsible for the holding up of an ordinance for the strict regulation of the poolrooms of the city, which was scheduled for final passage by the City Council last night.

The proposed ordinance calls for the closing of these places of amusement at 10:30 p.m. and bars all boys under 21 years of age. The petition, presented by W. R. Harper, president of the Merchants Association, favors the regulation of the poolrooms as regards the sale or consuming of liquor on the premises, but stamps as unfair to the business men the proposed 20 per cent. of the closing limit, since the business are taken in between that hour and midnight, it is declared.

After cooling off, the merchants offered his apologies to the board. The Anaheim law will probably become Santa Ana law next week, though Anaheim continues to declare the law worthless.

VOICE OBJECTION TO NEW SCHEDULE.

RESIDENTS OF SOUTH PASADENA WANT CARS TO STOP AT MORE STREETS.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SOUTH PASADENA, June 2.—Petitions against the new schedule of the Pacific Electric on the short line are being circulated in this city and are receiving a large number of signatures. Since the announcement of the new schedule, effective July 1, protesters have been loud and vigorous. Trains, instead of stopping at every block, if passengers wish to get off or on, according to the franchise, will make certain stops only, causing patrons in some cases to walk three or four blocks.

Objection to the omission of Mission street as a stop for the flyers going north is being raised. The objection is the junction for the transfer of the South Pasadena line with the Shore Line, and the center of the business district, and it is the general opinion that all cars should stop there.

The flyers going south stop at Columbia street, Mission street, Monterey street and Ontario station.

MOSQUITO BITE NEARLY FATAL.

TAPT, June 2.—H. H. Fennema, a contracting electrician, while scratching a mosquito bite today ignited a number of matches in his pocket, with the result that his clothing caught fire and he had a narrow escape from being severely burned.

Fennema is in the habit of carrying matches in his shirt pocket when he doesn't wear a coat. Irritated by a continued itching directly back of the pocket he unconsciously began scratching vigorously. The friction caused the matches to light and in a few moments his clothing was ablaze.

He hurried to a near-by sink, making efforts to smother out the fire with his bare hands on the way.

CITY ATTORNEY DONS WAR PAINT.

WEED-CUTTING ORDINANCE IS CAUSE OF TILT.

Official Takes Exception to Attempt to Introduce Anaheim Law, Calls It "Dumb Motion," Then Apologizes to Trustees—Child Run Down by Motorcyclist.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SANTA ANA, June 2.—City Attorney Heathman had his war paint on at the meeting of the City Trustees last night. He got excited and spoke of a motion made by City Trustee Alderman as a "dumb motion."

Heathman drew up a bill that was passed by the last Legislature, whereby a city could bring suit against a property owner for money spent in clearing weeds away from in front of the property. Santa Ana's Trustees say they tried to use the law, but found it too unwieldy for use. They also say it works an injustice, as court costs of $3 or $10 pile up against property in order to collect a 30-cent bill for cutting weeds.

The Trustees decided to adopt a weed law, under which a city could sue a business man for $100 if he failed to cut his weeds in front of his property. The cost of cleaning up the weeds is put into a man's tax bill, and though the Anaheim law is declared to be unconstitutional, it is declared to be a law to use it successfully.

Santa Ana's Trustees decided to adopt the law in the City Attorney's name. Straightway, Alderman moved to adopt the law in the City Attorney's name.

Heathman tried to talk, but Mayor Ey ruled him out of order, as Alderman's motion was up for a second. "I don't care about his dumb motion," expostulated Heathman. "This whole thing is meant to ridicule my law and to treat me with contempt."

Ey tried to head Heathman off, but Heathman would not be stopped, declaring that he was "running the board." He said the City Attorney was disorderly and subject to a fine of $10.

Trustee Grubb explained to Heathman that the Trustees did not desire to ridicule him or his State law, but they found that it was not practical. "Your legal offering is perfectly strong and robust legally, but it won't cut the mustard," said Grubb.

After cooling off, Heathman offered his apologies to the board. The Anaheim law will probably become Santa Ana law next week, though Anaheim continues to declare the law worthless.

BRIEF ITEMS.

Today County Clerk Williams footed up the registration of Orange county voters. The figures show: Republicans, 633; Progressives, 255; Democrats, 141; Prohibitionists, 129; Socialists, 63; declining to state, 150; Independent, 87; federation, 1.

Miss Mildred Bruce, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. A. Bruce, was knocked off her bicycle at noon today by a Jamison, a motorcyclist, who dodged a wagon and struck the girl. Though badly shaken up, she suffered no broken bones.

HUSBAND AND WIFE BOTH IN HOSPITAL AFTER CRASH AUTOMOBILE.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
MONROVIA, June 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of No. 6594 Ceres avenue are lying in the Haben Hospital here, Mrs. Nelson with a fractured skull and Nelson with a broken collar bone, as the result of an automobile-motorcycle collision Sunday night on East White Oak avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were riding a tandem motor car and met E. B. Radabaugh of Duarte in a automobile. As the two vehicles approached Radabaugh swung out to avoid a swale. Nelson, thinking the other intended to turn into Grand avenue, veered to the opposite side of the street, and the two machines came together head on.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were rendered unconscious. They were hurried to the Haben Hospital and given prompt medical attention, and at present are doing well.

Both the motorcycle and automobile were badly wrecked.

Cigar Manufacturer Plans His Own Funeral.

Signs Certificate of Death Then Passes Away.

Notorious Case Must Again Be Tried, Decision.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SANTA BARBARA, June 2.—John Kuehne, a cigar manufacturer, has picked his own coffin and has signed his own death certificate, and he is to be buried in his own selection to his old home, Jacksonville, Fla., as features the mark the passing away in a local hospital last evening of Joseph Kuehne, a wealthy cigar manufacturer. When the body, which was shipped this morning, reaches Jacksonville, an undertaker there will carry out burial details given him by a letter from Kuehne.

Kuehne came to Santa Barbara months ago suffering from an incurable malady. A few weeks ago he became convinced that death was near, and he decided to make his own selection for the end. Going to the undertaking establishment of Charles Mott he said:

"I am a stranger here, and want to attend to these final arrangements myself, so that when I am gone there will be nothing left for others to handle." The undertaker selected a casket, but filled out his own death certificate, and then drove to the depot and bought the necessary transportation for the shipment of the corpse to his eastern home.

"This is a business matter," said Kuehne, "and having been a business man all my life I shall believe that I should leave anything unsolved for any contingency of death."

Kuehne was 61 years of age, a man of jovial disposition, even when facing the last hours of his life.

MUST STAND TRIAL.
George H. A. Phillips, a wealthy young business man of this city, standing a second trial on the charge of having contributed to the delinquency of Nevada Bendit, 17 years old, today was ordered to stand trial.

The jury stood 8 to 4 for acquittal of the defendant.

Phillips is a former Los Angeles man and his parents now reside in Los Angeles. His wife is the daughter of a wealthy Ventura family. When the case was filed against her husband, Phillips was in the Ventura family, and he was said to be worth $100,000. It is estimated that the first trial cost Mrs. Phillips $100,000.

Gurdit Singh Will Inform India of Indignities.

(BY A. P. MOTT WIRE.)
VANCOUVER (B. C.) June 2.—Gurdit Singh, the Hindu leader, and 175 countrymen, who sailed across the Pacific to knock at the door of Canada as British subjects, are about to sail back to Asia on the Komagata Maru, which brought them here. The Canadian immigration authorities do not actually forbid the Hindus to land, but they have adopted a policy of delay, under which the examination of the prospective emigrants have been delayed for more than a year.

Gurdit Singh will go back to India, determined to protest to his countrymen there concerning the indignities which British subjects who wear turbans are subjected on the west coast of Canada. He expects to be able to stir up serious trouble for the British empire in India.

J. Edward Bird, chief counsel for the Hindus in Vancouver, said today: "I have been instructed by the local committee of the Hindus to withdraw from the present case, and to appeal to the Court of Inquiry, now being held by the immigration officials. The Hindus have just received word that the case can do nothing for them. So far as Ottawa is concerned, the Hindus realize now that the case is a failure. ALL STAPLES

TURN UPWARD.

EUROPEAN ADVICES MAKE

WHEAT MARKET BULLISH.

Corn Shows a Substantial Advance

Notwithstanding Much Profit-

Taking by the Longs—Oats Follow

Other Grains, Acreage Reported

Less.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 2.—Wheat prices turned upward

today, influenced largely by European advice of

bullish crop conditions of disintegrating stocks

on hand. The market here closed steady at an advance of 1/8 cent. Other leading staples, too, all showed gains—corn, 1/4 cent; oats, 1/8 cent;

barley, 1/8 cent; and provisions, 1/2 cent to 1/4 cent.

Notwithstanding a good deal of profit taking by longs, the corn market quickly absorbed all offerings. Eastern demand was said to have improved to a material extent. Oats trading was chiefly of local character, with the market firm in corn parity with other grain. Estimates were current that the average this year amounts to 1.1 per cent over the total a year ago. Provisions went up-grade on account of western cut meat stocks having been reduced to 10,000,000 pounds during the last month.

Local Grain Receipts.

Following is range of offerings furnished by the Grain Dealers' Association, June 2, 1914:

1.15 cent; feet wheat, 1.02 to 1.07; barley, 1.00;

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 2.—Wheat prices turned upward

today, influenced largely by European advice of

bullish crop conditions of disintegrating stocks

on hand. The market here closed steady at an advance of 1/8 cent. Other leading staples, too, all showed gains—corn, 1/4 cent; oats, 1/8 cent;

barley, 1/8 cent; and provisions, 1/2 cent to 1/4 cent.

Notwithstanding a good deal of profit taking by longs, the corn market quickly absorbed all offerings. Eastern demand was said to have improved to a material extent. Oats trading was chiefly of local character, with the market firm in corn

parity with other grain. Estimates were current that the average this year amounts to 1.1 per cent

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Former Police Commissioner. McDill yesterday filed an appeal to the Council to fix two classes of liquor permits, one for those that sell only wine and beer and the other, higher, for those selling all kinds of intoxicants.

In the manipulations to secure the opening of Hill street, between Fourth and Fifth, to liquor permits, the Hotel Clark surrendered its No. 2 restaurant liquor permit and now finds itself without any, as the block remains closed.

The Council yesterday decided to extend an official invitation to the National Conference of Civil Service Commissioners to meet in this city next year.

The trial of a separate maintenance suit yesterday brought to light the tangled skein in the lives of an elderly couple who disagreed after twenty-eight years of living together. The facts developed were that both had made living when they decided to join fortunes.

At the City Hall.

TWO CLASSES OF SALOON PERMITS.

PLAN PROPOSED BY FORMER POLICE COMMISSIONER.

One Rate for Places Selling Only Wines and Beers and Higher Charges for Those Retailing All Sorts of Alcoholic Drinks Is Basis of Proposed Amendment.

A new element was injected into the discussions regarding an increase of city revenues from licenses on intoxicating liquors when George W. McDill, former member of the Police Commission, filed with the City Clerk a communication to the City Council in which he proposes a plan for creating two classes of liquor permits, with one limited to the sale of only wines and beers, paying $100 per month, and the other permitting the sale of all classes of intoxicating liquors and paying $350 per month.

In this appeal to the Council, McDill says:

It appears from reports in the daily papers that the special Council committee on the subject of increase of liquor licenses has made a report adverse to the plan to tax liquor establishments upon a percentage of gross receipts, and, has recommended, instead, a flat rate increase of license. Believing as I do that a flat-rate increase of saloon licenses would tend to force many of the smaller saloons out of business and to throw more licenses into the hands of the big saloons, and that the increase of license would tend to strengthen the hold of the liquor monopoly over the liquor business of the city to the disadvantage of the city, I am led to suggest a plan of taxation which will obviate the result above mentioned, will remove some of the objections to the present plan, and which will have some tendency to improve conditions in the liquor business.

The plan is as follows: An amendment to the liquor ordinance to provide for two classes of saloons; one class in which only wines and beers are sold, and to pay not less than the present license rate of $100 per month; and another class which may sell all kinds of alcoholic liquors at present, but to pay a higher license, say of $350 per month.

This plan would result in forcing the saloons that are making the larger profits to pay the higher license, because they are saloons that are so located and have a business of such a nature that they would desire to have the privileges that go with the higher license.

No doubt a large number of saloons would find it necessary to do business under the smaller license, and, to the extent of the city, at least, such saloons would encourage the use of lighter liquors, and this would unquestionably lessen drunkenness, and would naturally find it necessary to do this class of business happen to be saloons in which where the lessening of drunkenness would be of distinct advantage to the community.

Under this plan neither the number of saloons nor the limit of the liquor sold would be changed in the slightest, and the number of saloons of one or the other class in existence would depend on the number paying the one or the other license fee. This same principle could easily be applied to the liquor restaurants and liquor hotels and other liquor houses, and their license fees adjusted accordingly.

LIQUOR PERMITS.

ACTION ON APPLICATIONS.

The Police Commission yesterday took the following action on applications for liquor permits:

A transfer was granted for the saloon at No. 415 North Main street from Joseph Mazzetti to Mazzetti & La Maida.

The No. 2 restaurant liquor permit for No. 325 West Seventh street was transferred from Charles Frish to Miller and Miller.

The Pennant Social Club was denied a social club liquor permit for No. 1024 Commercial street.

The commission granted a transfer of the saloon permit at No. 2017 East Seventh street, from Walter M. Beckwith to Christensen. A similar transfer was granted for the saloon at No. 810 Macy street from Serrano to Giaccone & Antognelli.

The wholesale liquor permit for No. 541 South Main street was transferred from Schmitt & Marks to Victor Marks.

The commission denied the application of Sobler & Lenox for a transfer of the saloon permit at No. 821 East Fifth street to that from from Erard W. Sobler.

All the applications for locations on Hill street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, were denied, as the block remains closed.

AN INVITATION.

FOR CONVENTION HERE.

The Council yesterday took official action toward securing for this city next year's conference of Civil Service Commissioners of the United States.

A resolution, which was introduced by Councilman Conwell, was adopted, providing that Mr. D. C. MacLean, a member of the Civil Service Commission and of the Municipal Efficiency Commission, be designated the official representative of Los Angeles at the annual conference of the National Association of Civil Service Commissioners to be held in Pueblo, Colo., June 11, and that he be requested to extend on behalf of the City Council, an invitation to the conference to hold its 1915 session in this city.

INCREASE INCOME.

MAY BE NEW SCHEDULE.

Members of the Council discovered yesterday that only five votes are required to adopt an ordinance increasing the license fees on liquor establishments, instead of seven, as had been supposed. This makes possible for the proposed new schedule of license fees to be put into effect.

The Council yesterday by a vote of five to four adopted the report of the special committee on liquor licenses, providing for an increase in fees of 35.5 per cent, and increasing the total revenues from liquor licenses to $185,880, making the total income from this source $707,400 per annum.

The City Attorney is instructed to prepare the necessary ordinance, and it is probable that a renewed attempt will be made to defeat it when it comes before the Council for passage.

Minor City Hall News.

The Police Commission yesterday sustained the charges made against Charles W. Moxley, auctioneer, No. 820 South Main street. His license was ordered cancelled. Moxley did not appear.

The blackberry crop on the Municipal Inebriate Farm this season will be between 3000 and 5000 boxes. The Chief of Police yesterday asked the commission for instructions as to disposal of the crop.

The Public Safety Committee yesterday decided to recommend that the Board of Public Works be given authority to issue permits for banners across the streets for such length of time as the board may deem proper, provided the ordinance limits the time to thirty days.

TWO TWISTED IN TANGLED TIES.

MAINTENANCE SUIT BARES A REMARKABLE STORY.

After Living Together Nearly Thirty Years Couple Disagree and She Seeks Court Aid Through Both Had Mates Living When They Joined Their Fortunes.

The separate-maintenance suit of Marie J. W. Osmon against Silas C. Osmon, tried and dismissed before Judge Monroe yesterday, was pathetic in the first chapter and amazing in the story unraveled to its denouement. She is 51, still showing traces of the beauty which attracted Silas to her twenty-seven years ago. He is 69, still hale and hearty, but repudiating the tie which she testified bound them in the communion of souls.

"We were married in New York July 28, 1886, and lived together until 1909," she said.

"I met Mr. Osmon in 1887, but we were never married," said Osmon. This contradiction was merely the first step in the strange tale. Mrs. Osmon sought to establish a contract marriage, but she said the certificate had been destroyed in the fire which burned down their home in this city before their separation five years ago. So she was without proof.

Then bobbed up to torment Osmon proof that at the time he met and accepted the pretty young woman as his mate, he had a wife living. He could not produce proof that they were ever divorced. In the rapid turn of events it then developed that the so-called Mrs. Osmon had a husband whom she had left after a few months of married life.

The queerest twist of all was the fact as it appeared that she had married Louis B. Wheatland at Johnstown, Pa., in 1887, and that he had been dead several years before, as she alleged, Osmon married her.

In view of these facts the court held there could not have been a contract marriage with Osmon; that neither party had been free to marry. Attorney Perry, counsel for Mrs. Osmon, threw up his hands and asked that the suit be dismissed.

Mrs. Osmon depended upon the allegation of desertion to win her suit. Osmon, it appeared, although the fact did not develop in the trial, had rubbed the wrong way by Mrs. Osmon's relatives in a matter concerning property. Thus the breach was made.

Mrs. Osmon is an invalid, and despite her suit against him, Osmon was quick to lend her his arm to escort her to a seat or open her fan when she grew nervous under examination. He was represented by Attorney Riddle.

AGREES TO FIGHT.

FOR A CONTINGENT FEE.

One of the angels of the probate of the will of William H. Hutton yesterday was the tender of H. L. Musser to carry out a certain sum of money to pay off a litigation growing out of a quieting title to mining claims owned by Stratton in Pinal county, Arizona. Musser agreed on a basis of 15 per cent of the gross recovery for carrying on the fight.

The question involved in the litigation is whether or not a certain interest can be established. Under a contract Stratton had put up $4250, and at the time of his death the litigation had not terminated. It is understood that his widow, Mrs. Annie J. Stratton, objects to putting up any more money. Judge Rives approved Musser's proposition.

Stratton's estate of approximately $30,000. He was president of the Pierce-Kennedy Oil Company, and besides holdings in this county he owned land in Colorado. The heirs are the widow and his children, E. S. and G. F. Stratton, Marjorie O. Stratton and Virginia Gilbreath, the latter two of Monte Vista, Colo. The estate is represented by Attorney E. E. Crandall.

WILL IS LOST.

ASK PROBATE ANYWAY.

A will, the most zealously guarded of instruments, rarely turns up in the Probate Court. A. H. Sealitz for many years identified with the Southern Pacific at Arcade Station, executed his will, leaving the bulk of his $14,753 estate to his sister, Minnie S. Martin, and his brother, George P. Sealitz. He gave $1 to his brother, George P. Sealitz, and the rest to his sister, Mrs. Hannah S. Martin of Terre Haute, and Mrs. Miller, also of the Middle West. His reason was that they were "comfortably fixed."

A few days before Sealitz died, his will could not be found, and it now figures in the Probate Court as a lost will. The will was found by George P. Sealitz, who had been in the Southern California Building and Loan Association.

DOCTOR SUED.

AS BABY'S FATHER.

Fate drove together Mrs. Anna F. Schwartz and Dr. L. Ginsburg at a picnic at Ocean Park July 4, 1910. Now a babe separates them. Mrs. Schwartz is battling before a jury in the Probate Court to establish the paternity of a child born to her on March 1, 1913. Dr. Ginsburg says he did not make love to Anna. He called her to see her father, Dr. Jacob Hurwitz, an aristocratic-looking, elderly man. The suit is brought under the new act which makes a doctor responsible for his illegitimate child.

When the couple met, Mrs. Schwartz had obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce from her husband, Ginsburg, was studying medicine. She says he promised to marry her after she obtained her divorce. The case came March 1913. The babe came March 26, 1913.

Dr. Ginsburg says he did not make love to Anna. He called her to see her father, Dr. Jacob Hurwitz, an aristocratic-looking, elderly man. The suit is brought under the new act which makes a doctor responsible for his illegitimate child.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

SAYS DOG BIT HIM. Albert Reigert encountered the dog of George Zeigler at the latter's garage March 7, last, and alleged in a criminal case yesterday that the dog being vicious, bit him on the left leg. Because of this he seeks a total of $475 damages, secured as follows: $100 for pain and distress; $200; anguish; $200; doctors' bills and time lost, $275.

FATHER'S DAMAGE SUIT. The infatuation of Amelia Selbert, aged 15, for J. H. Kuhn, broke the heart of the girl's father, Mr. Selbert. He traced the girl and Kuhn to the Brownstone apartments, December 5, 1913, and for ruining her career he seeks $5000 damages. Kuhn is said to own property in this county.

WILL DODGE CUPID. Edythe E. Perry, who pleaded guilty to bigamy, promised Judge Willis yesterday that for at least two years, the duration of her probation, she will not marry, and thereafter will not marry without first having ascertained the antecedents of her husband. First she married John Perry and they separated. She then married Gordon L. Barr, after Perry told her he had procured a divorce. Mrs. Perry took his word for it and got into trouble.

INDICTMENT STANDS. F. J. Nuttall, accused of having slain Mrs. Helen McComb, his old sweetheart, was arraigned before Judge Willis yesterday. He is charged with the murder of the woman, who was shot to death by Nuttall and nine other youths of the Monrovia district, who are accused of having "whipped" Editor C. N. Whitaker of the Monrovia Messenger, were also arraigned before Judge Willis. They stood in a row while the court extended the time until Friday for them to enter pleas.

ATTORNEY IS ACCUSED. Although W. J. Hutton, a corporation attorney, is out of jail on $2500 bond, he asked and was denied a writ of habeas corpus in Judge Craig's court yesterday. Hutton has been held for the Superior Court for attaching a pair of mules worth $200 to satisfy a $1 grocery bill. Yesterday Deputy District Attorney Graham issued a complaint charging him with the embezzlement of an auto from H. Langlois. Hutton is charged with having confiscated the car to satisfy an old

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, June 2.—The veil is believed to have been partially lifted today from the mysterious foreign questions "graver" to which President Wilson has been asked to introduce in his message to Congress last winter, the repeal of the free trade clause in the Panama Canal Act.

That they refer in part to the development of the Administration's policy with regard to the Philippine Islands, was indicated today, following a long conference held at the White House, between the President and Congressman William A. Jones of Virginia, chairman of the House Committee on Insular Affairs. Mr. Jones is preparing to introduce in the House before the close of the session a bill providing for the ultimate independence of the islands, in conformity with the pledge in the Baltimore forum.

It is understood that such legislation is the proposed measure to be introduced, before the session closes, by Mr. Jones.
